

Her Proposal

by Preun BB

"Is that tight enough, slave?"

Sanjay nodded shakily, struggling to remain on his feet as his domme tightened the restraints around the leather bondage gloves. They were tethered to the ceiling of the abandoned warehouse just high enough that if he stretched his arms out as much as he could, he could get some support from the ground. He was uncomfortable, but he was sure it would be the least of his troubles soon.

Jenny was not a nice domme. Her practices weren't considered the safest by a lot of her colleagues; a quick Google search turned up dozens of videos of her ignoring slaves' safewords and limits. He'd learned this the hard way when he'd handed over his credit card and reminded her of the strict $10,000/month limit he'd set for financial domination; an amount that just about left him with enough income to get by without dipping into his savings. When she blew through $30,000 the first month and demanded another card (he hadn't even known how high his credit limit was before), he was aghast. He'd saved his fortune for years, getting a nest egg ready for his future wife...and she had drained him for far more than he'd prepared himself for and needed more. And yet, he couldn't stop himself from handing over his Visa.

She'd gone through the whole sum quickly; he was amazed at how fast a person could spend money when they had no regard for the work it took to earn it. Each session started with her in some sublimely revealing and astonishingly expensive new designer getup, and Sanjay's credit card statements taught him exactly how exclusive a "Birkin" bag was. Six digits dwindled to five, and that dwindled to nothing. Draining his retirement plan was next, with no thought to the heavy fees that went with it.

After the last of the money was gone, his car went, which gave him a couple months of runway to continue employing Jenny's services. Her work was well worth the price: daily ballbusting, long-term blueballs and pegging all filled his evenings, as well as the occasional forceful introduction to new fetishes.

Pegging was one of her favorites. Her work on his ass started with the slim dildoes he had provided and gradually escalated into the 10-inch monstrosity she called "Big Bertha". She claimed it was actually made out of the amputated penis of a man she had castrated in high school. Sanjay knew that was just part of her roleplay, but Jenny was a true professional, and her acting was so convincing he had splattered his load just from her vigorous assfucking.

And now the money from the car was gone too. But he still had one meaningful piece of property. He'd always promised himself that the house wouldn't go to fuel his perverted addictions; an empty bank account was just a number, but the mansion had been in his family for generations and he'd always been planning on passing it onto his children. But Jenny's offer was too good to pass up.

"I'll marry you if you pass my test, Sanjay. We can have a family. We can still do fetish play after we're married, but as husband and wife, not domme and client. And you could even have a normal sex life, if you want." She said, smiling warmly.

It wasn't just Jenny's words that convinced Sanjay to hand over the deed. When she'd proposed the deal, he swore he saw something different in her smile, something nice and domestic that she usually covered up with leather and whips. She was a professional domme, yes, but for just a second, he saw through the facade. She actually wanted him, she would actually stay with him, no other men, for free, for life. Totally consensual. No acting. Actual marriage, with a ceremony and a shared bed and kids.

His parents had always bugged him about his lack of grandchildren. He didn't have to tell them about her past, about how they had met when she was at a booth bored at some BDSM convention. He didn't have to tell them about how he'd begged for her card. They could be a normal family with a normal sex life instead of the fucked-up dynamic he paid her for now. He could actually impregnate her, instead of just leaking semen onto a concrete floor while she ushered the next client in. She'd bear his children, pass his seed on, look back at him smiling as he pumped load after load into her, their family growing into the big empty house his uncle had left him...It was almost too good to be true.

He knew whatever the contest was, it would not be pleasant for him. Jenny truly dommed for her own pleasure; it was what made her so relentlessly intoxicating to him. Her verbal domming matched the intensity of her physical.

One particular incident had burned itself into his mind over the course of dozens of masturbation sessions. It had been a particularly brutal ball-squeezing session, and she had breathlessly started screaming, inspiring a dark fantasy he'd never had before. "I'm going to castrate you, slave. You'll be a nutless little neuter, totally unable to ever produce a single drop of sperm ever again." It was one of his favorite memories; her on top of him, riding his face, squeezing his balls so hard they'd be bruised for the next two weeks, her pussy gushing onto his face as she shuddered those words out: "When I'm done with you, you won't have anything left. You'll be a useless, ball-less non-man. I'm going to pop them, going to feel them squish between my-'oh!'-he picked up speed and helped finish her orgasm, bucking his own hips in pain and frustration while she came noisily on top of him. Being sent home from that with his cage in place was agonizing. He'd never been with a woman who was so convincing about her total domination of him.

From then on, castration dominated his fantasies; the terrifying permanence and ultimate submission it represented was toe-curlingly hot. She had given him these bizarre appetites, and now he would do anything to stay with her.

Jenny brought out that $40,000 bag and spilled its contents onto the table beside. Three items caught his attention. She'd brought her usual bottle of lube she used anal sessions, but its color was cloudy and blue. One was obviously some kick of cocksleeve, with a rubber band at the bottom where he assumed his testicles would go. And the last was an odd black buttplug, not as large as he'd expected but with a telescopic segmented surface.

"An old friend of mine was in town, and she brought me some new stuff to try out with my slaves. She's a hell of a scientist, and she does a lot of work with male sexuality. Not that you're much of a male, of course." She smiled evilly down at his cock, his whole four inches bobbing up and down, harder than he'd ever been. He had never even asked for small penis humiliation from her; it had come naturally.

"You've always been small, haven't you?" He nodded silently.

"And you've always cum quick, or is that just for me?"

He squeezed his eyes shut. "Just with you, Mistress." And it was true. Even though he was tiny, he'd always prided himself in being able to last long. But Jenny had systematically dismantled his ability to control himself, with a series of training exercises, teasing, denial, and cock and ball torture. She got him to cum with less and less penile stimulation, then got him to cum just from his prostate, then got him addicted to the feeling of ballbusting...As soon as he'd gotten used to one form of female domination, she changed to something new, keeping him overstimulated, forcing him to cum so many times, marathon masturbatrix sessions that kept him drained to the point of exhaustion, pools and pools of cum spilled onto her dungeon floor until he couldn't manage another drop.

"Well, you know I need a husband who can control himself, right? I know you're small, but to be impregnated by a quickshot as well...I mean, I have to show some self respect, you know?" She strapped a ballgag into his open mouth.

He swallowed and nodded silently.

"So I'm going to give you a chance to show that you can last for me."

That, at least, wasn't a surprise. Whatever her challenge was, he knew it would involve her induced oversensitivity somehow. He had done his best to prepare. In the three months since signing that agreement with her, he had masturbated as often as possible, edging himself, bringing his one minute stamina up past the quarter hour mark.

But would that be enough to last through all of her ministrations today?

She picked up the cocksleeve and kneeled in front of him.

"You're going to have to last a full hour for me."

He started sweating again. Four times as long as his record, and she was bringing out new toys. She knew how weak new toys made him. He would never be able to make it, and it was too late to back out.

"...And to make things a little easier on you," she grinned up at him benevolently, "I'm not going to touch your cock or balls."

His eyes knitted in confusion. Even a submissive beta fuckboy like him could last without being touched. Sure, she had made him cum with no penile stimulation before, but that had taken weeks of training and chastity and blueballing. And he'd never been farther from being blueballed.

Without any money left to pay her fee, he had been free to drain himself as he pleased during the three months lead up between her proposal and today. Three times a day, he'd pumped himself empty to memories of Jenny, imagining she was sitting on his face, squirting along with him as they shared orgasms together. He'd imagined every scenario they ever played out and then some; with nobody controlling his orgasms, he pumped more cum out that he had the entire year of domination before.

With training like that, an hour without touching would be easy.

"Don't think I won't be doing other things with you. You should know about all the ways I can rev your engine without even touching that thing between your legs." She grinned evilly. That would make it more difficult, of course, but...

No, this couldn't be right.

Jenny wasn't known for her mercy. She especially wasn't known for making things "easier" on her slaves. Could this be...

His eyes met hers, and it hit him. That same spark twinkled there, that little glint of joy of the women beneath the (very expensive) leather. She was his domme...but she was also a person. When she locked up the dungeon and headed home, a different Jenny emerged, one who wore sweatpants and ate ramen and watched Netflix.

That was the Jenny in front of him. The normal Jenny. She didn't want to force him out of his service, as he had been so worried about when she finished draining him financially. She wanted to stay with him, move into their house together, start a real family. This leather-and-whip stuff was just her day job. She'd given him an easy "challenge" so they could transition into a real relationship.

His imminent fiancée picked up the cocksleeve and sauntered over, grabbing him forcefully between the legs and easing his package into the rubbery container. An additional band at the bottom strapped around the top of his testicles, comfortably snug but not as tight as her elastrator bands. She flipped a switch on the side of the device, but nothing happened.

"This is to make sure I don't accidentally touch you and set you off. This should be thick enough to protect you." She didn't explain the switch or the band, and Sanjay couldn't ask through his gag. Then she got the strange plug and bottle of what had to be lube. She was wearing a pair of latex gloves, which struck him as odd. She wasn't going to be touching him anyway; what did she need the gloves for?

She stepped behind him, close enough for him to smell her perfume. He heard her squeeze a generous dollop of the stuff out, and her fingers tentatively probed into his surprisingly tight (and squeaky clean; Jenny always insisted he tidy himself up before sessions) rosebud.

As she spread the stuff inside of him, he felt fingers of icy cold spread out from wherever she touched, on the outside "You may have noticed it by now, slave, but this lube has some special chemical properties." His entire butt was tingling now, puckering up at the icy sweetness, his cock bobbing to life without any stimulation. "Just a little something to up the game, and really show me that you're ready to be a real man. You see, real men don't just cum from their ass."

"I know," she put up a hand to his mouth to quiet his squeals. "I know, you don't a/ways cum from it. But a real man would never cum from it. Not even with that hyperarousal that's starting to set in." He was humping backwards involuntarily, like his butt was so hungry he needed to find something to fill it.

"You do feel it now, right? Cathy promised me she specifically formulated it for you."

The sensation was overwhelming now; cum was boiling in his balls, and he spread his legs apart involuntarily, aching for that sweet hard pressure of one of her toys.

"I have no idea how it works, but she said it was some sort of...bioneural? link that plugs right into your greatest desire. And it looks like yours is..." She looked down at his twitching buttohole.

"Why, Mr. Patel, it looks like you've got a real need for me to assfuck you, don't you?" She purred into his ear, her voice with just a lilt of amusement and arousal. Sanjay knew she was enjoying this.

He nodded vigorously. He could still hold out. He could still control himself even with a plug up his butt and this special lube. He could hold his cum in with something fun filling him. He could still control himself.

He just needed that stiff pressure inside him, pushing onto that special little button in his bottom, that magical little organ that made all of her vigorous, pounding pegging sessions so delightful. No orgasm, just a little ass play was all he wanted. She wouldn't even be touching him, after all.

"Don't worry, slave, you don't need to ask me aloud. I know you've been excited about this since you've seen it." She picked up the plug and pressed the tip of it against his butt. It puckered and tensed, rhythmically pushing back onto it instinctually. And as he pushed back as hard as he could, involuntarily searching for something to fill him, she abruptly shoved her palm forward and the whole plug plunged deep inside of him.

It was like being electrified. The plastic device whirred to life inside of him, expanding and squeezing and pushing until it perfectly filled the tight cavity. Jenny's eyes lit up as he gasped and shrieked through the red rubber ball. "Another one of her genius little inventions. Not your normal buttplug, is it?," she cooed to him.

Sanjay couldn't respond. His eyes were rolled back in pleasure as he bucked and moaned at the new intrusion. It certainly wasn't the first foreign object she had suddenly put inside of him, but it was the most lively. The high-tech sex toy seemed to know exactly what he wanted; pressing against his butt like so, then shooting forward and hitting his prostate, pulling back out and pushing in again. It established a rhythm, then broke it, speeding up, slowing down, expanding and contracting.

"It's a clever little thing. She trained it to adjust to the slave's-ooh!" His cock was fully stiff now, bobbing happily as the plug pushed the first drop of precum out of him. He felt full, fuller even than with Big Bertha, just perfect and complete pressure on every wall and every crevice of his sensitive boypussy.

Cum was boiling up in his balls now, but he held fast and repressed it. Each little twitch from his butt brought another twitch from his cock and testicles, but Sanjay knew what was at stake. He could control himself, at least for an hour. It wouldn't be easy, but he could. He tried futilely to push the deliciously intrusive device out of himself, but it only pressed back into him twice as hard, redoubling its thrusts and vibrations.

"You're not going to be able to get it out no matter how hard you try. It's reactive to your actions. I swear, that girl is a goddamn genius."

She stepped in front of him, eyes locked into his, face faintly blushed. She really liked this. Knowing that his arousal was fueling her own made another spasm of pleasure run through him, and he pulled her plug even deeper into himself.

"But I know you can hold out, right?" She had removed her gloves, and her hand drifted down between his legs, dangerously close to his rock-hard, rubber-coated cock. His balls twitched involuntarily in his sack, and he knew he was close. He bit his tongue, tried to think of baseball, and felt the hot cum just barely stay inside his swollen, achey balls. He was way too close.

"I want you to hold out for me, Sanjay." Her tone was husky and nervous, and almost tender. This was the real Jenny, the Jenny that knew him as Sanjay instead of just a slave. The Jenny that wanted him to win, that was rooting for him to make it to the finish line, so they could marry and procreate and love each other.

"Think of your reward. Sex with me. Normal sex, your cock in my pussy, as often as you want. Waking up in bed with me. Fucking in the morning, fucking before bed, fucking whenever you want it." One of her hands still traced agonizingly close to his still fully-encased cock, and the other drifted between her own legs. She unzipped the front of her leather domme panties and let an exploratory finger inside of herself, moaning in pleasure as he moaned in frustration.

"If...if you hold out now I'll even give you a sample, before we're even married. And it's the right time of month for me, if I'm trying to conceive." She winked. "I mean, I know we're not married yet, but I just want to start our family together as soon as possible, you know?"

She wasn't hiding it anymore. No more subtle glints in her eye, or coy smirks. Jenny had finally come out and said exactly what she wanted.

He twitched again, and another spurt of precum coated the inside of the numbing sleeve.

"I do need you to hold back for me though, baby. It's not even about proving anything to me anymore. I need you to hold back so you can perform your husbandly duties." Her smile turned to a worried frown. Sanjay was perplexed.

"You see, that little sleeve around your cock, well...It's not just for protection. That little band around your ballsack? I know it's not too tight right now, but there's a sperm collector on the tip of the cocksleeve, and there's some chemical reaction that's triggered when...Well, the specifics don't really matter. The important thing is: You need to hold your cum in, or that band is going to tighten until your little slave balls don't work anymore."

Domme Jenny was back.

"This isn't role play, by the way. I know I've acted out some castration scenes with you before, but this is mmf is the real thing." She got close to him, still fingering herself urgently as his confusion turned to horror.

"I mean it, Sanjay. If you cum, not only will you never have sex with me; you'll never have sex with anyone."

She wasn't serious. She couldn't be.

"I don't think either of us want that, do we? So, if you need something to help you hold your cum in...Well, don't just think of the reward you'll be missing if you don't; think of the consequences. Think of what it would be like to wake up in the hospital, your testicles removed, the doctors explaining that the tiny little band around your cords had completely killed off your manhood forever."

He twitched again, and a particularly large dollop of precum shot out of his cockslit.

And below his erection, the band tightened. Just a little pinch, but a definite tightening.

Jenny's eyes lit up at the movement. "Ooh, you felt that right? She said that might happen. Since you probably have a little cum in your pipes from jerking off, a big spurt of precum brings a little real jizz with it, and it sort of...triggers it prematurely. Don't worry, its strength scales based on the amount of semen, so a few stray sperm won't be enough to pinch your cords off! You'd need a full cumshot before that happens."

Oh fuck. It was real. This time, it was all too real. That had always been her specialty, after all; Jenny's genuineness blurred her scenes between fantasy and reality. Castration had always been the darkest, most intense fantasy for him, and she knew exactly how to get inside his head.

He spurted again, and the band's circumference reduced by another fraction of an inch. He tried to will the foreign object out of him, not daring to actually push it and trigger another anal attack. But the plug kept pushing and squirming, filling him up and pressing more seminal fluid out of his prostate.

He was getting uncomfortably, terrifyingly close to orgasm. Terrifyingly close to losing both Jenny and his testicles permanently.

"Just hold it in for me, baby! I know you can do it." She pulled her leather panties down and bent over in front of him, her spread pussy just inches away from his hard, contained cock, her masturbation increasing in intensity and speed. She was wet, extremely wet, for him. She smiled back at him innocently, as if she had no idea what she was doing to him. "I can't wait until this is over, and we're living together. This will be a normal sight for you then! Except you'll get to be inside of me instead of just my fingers.

"Imagine, three times a day, me bent over on our bed, your hard little cock thrusting in and out. You don't know what that feels like yet, do you? I know you had your virginity when you first became my client, and I don't think you've had a chance to lose it since we've worked together." Her voice was breathy and her face was flushed. He could smell and hear and almost taste her arousal. Just a little longer, and he'd finally get a chance to really enjoy her. He tried to put the pressure on his prostate out of his mind, tried to ignore the viciously sexy bent over naked woman in front of him. He didn't know how much longer he had, but he hoped he was close to release. He cried and begged, pleaded for her to relent, let him out of his unsatisfying, unmanning device, but the ball gag turned his words into muffled gibberish. He squeezed his eyes shut, blocking off the sight of the beautiful domme but not her voice.

"I want you, Sanjay. Don't give up yet. You can hold out. A little longer, is all. A little longer, and you can finally have that normal domestic life you've always dreamed of."

"I want it with you. I want to be your woman, to let you fuck me and have you cum in me while I cum all over your cock."

Just hold out, Sanjay. Don't cum. Don't let your balls get pinched off and die. Hold it back. You can do it. His internal mantra helped calm him down, a bit. There couldn't be more than 30 seconds left. He was so close-

"I want to have your baby, Sanjay."

Spurt

He started cumming, hard, just as she did. If that damned rubber contraption hadn't been there, he would have thrust forward into her eager pussy, as her own cries of pleasure echoed through the warehouse. Without his lube-slick hand pumping over the head of his cock, the orgasm he knew would be his last was maddeningly unsatisfying.

And as his creamy semen filled up the collector, the cruel band below started shrinking much, much more than before. A burning, itching pain started around his nutcords, and each spurt of cum tightened the band, bringing it closer to killing his manhood.

"Oh, slave." Jenny's orgasm had finished before his. She turned around, flushed and sweaty and with afterglow. Her evil domme grin was back.

"I knew you couldn't hold it in. I knew you were too weak to keep your balls. Well, consider this a going away present for your nuts." She brought her hands between his legs, and used her thumb and forefinger to just barely stroke the plastic-encased base of his cock. It wasn't much, but that faint touch reinvigorated his cumshot, and he cried out from the pain of the tightening elastator as he filled his cocksleeve with another heavy spurt of ball juice.

Finally, his orgasm ended. As had their domme/sub relationship, his financial security, and his ability to impregnate any woman ever again. Jenny squatted down, face level with his defeated manhood. His balls had gone from achingly swollen to terrifyingly cold. He knew he was neutered now.

But she didn't seem so certain. Jenny gave him a light punch in his groin, and he flinched involuntarily, swinging from his bonds. The pain was a muted echo of the usual blaring nutpain she brought him, but he still felt something.

"You could feel that, couldn't you?" she asked annoyedly. He nodded.

"Hm. I guess Cathy's calculations aren't as accurate as she thought she was. Looks like your balls are still alive." She rolled her eyes and shrugged. "Our relationship is over either way, but when those bonds unlock at the end of the hour, you should be relatively...not castrated. You'll have to take yourself to the hospital though. I'm late for another appointment."

She zipped herself up quickly, clearly in a rush now.

"Just...make sure not to cum again. You didn't produce quite enough to trigger the entire castration, but you're really close to it. One more little spurt and they'll be finished. So you're just going to have to wait..." She looked down at her phone. "45 more minutes!"

So he hadn't even come close to holding out for the full hour, but at least he could still save his balls. They were cold and mostly numb, but there was still something functional between his legs. She got up and packed her things, taking the deed to his house and the expensive bag but leaving her domme equipment attached to him.

"You can keep all that stuff on you, and...inside you. I don't like reusing sex toys between slaves anyway, and you're not going to be booking any more appointments with me."

She turned around and walked away, giving him one last view of that perfect bubble butt. As her patent leather heels clacked on the cold concrete, the buttplug started its motions again, and he felt another undeniable surge of arousal push through him.

And he came. Again.

Sanjay bucked and screamed in despair as the cum collector around his cock stretched out further as his cock dribbled another final damning stream of cum into it. Then the green light faded to a malevolent red, and the band around his nutcords constricted even tighter, biting hard into his scrotum and cutting off the last trickle of life-giving, oxygenated blood flowing to the organs.

She smiled back at him, that smile that had tricked him into giving up everything for her. Jenny watched triumphantly as his balls attempted to push out their truly final load through their pinched cords, a tiny trickle just barely eking out before stopping completely. A mechanical whining sound came from the device's motor, and Sanjay screamed as the plastic sleeve constricted his scrotum incredibly tightly, the oval sack squeezed into a perfectly round shape, the tight waist of his nutcords shrinking tinier and tinier until they were barely connected, and then-

Plop

His scrotum fell to the floor, his precious testicles still inside. Jenny walked away as he started wailing tragically.

Jenny sped down the highway, content with a good day's work. Breaking up with a slave was awkward at best, and breaking up with one as devoted as that was the worst. He'd told her from the start that the house was off limits, so she assumed her request would've been enough for him to get the hint. When he readily accepted, she had been so unprepared she'd had to send him off for a while to devise the perfect unwinnable game. Usually she summarily castrated them and sent them on their way at the end of the bank account, but Sanjay had been an exceptionally good slave, and he deserved her full effort on his final session.

She'd miss him, but everything comes to an end eventually. His retirement had fulfilled one of his deepest fantasies, so she hoped he enjoyed her sendoff. Jenny had expected for him to cum basically immediately, but she was so happy he had managed to last as long as he did. Every minute she danced over his doomed little member was magically ironic; there was nothing hotter than watching the poor boy struggling to hold out without even knowing the consequences of his failure. That was exactly the kind of thing that poor pervert loved.

Well, used to love. There wouldn't be a whole lot of loving for him now. Jenny put Sanjay out of her mind, and began planning for her next client.

Until next time

You made it to the end. Hopefully your gonads are more functional than the ones you just read about.

I love hearing from readers. Whether you've got feedback, a request, an oddly specific scenario you've been dying to see written, a unformatted wall of text meticulously describing each and every ballbusting fantasy you've ever masturbated to, or just want to correct all of my typos, drop me a line.
