

The Ballbusting Arena 3: Retired

by Preun BB

Brad squinted at the bright lights of the arena. Fiona swore this show was amazing, but he'd never even heard of this place. They'd come through an unlabeled mesh metal gate behind a bowling alley to get here. Whatever this place was, it was covert. And strangely well-guarded.

This was totally her kind of thing. She was always dragging him off to some obscure hipster attraction: a fancy club behind a secret door in a convenience store, or a laser tag place with a "speakeasy" in its basement, where the bartenders served $12 drinks to people who used the word "mouthfeel". She knew so much more about the area than he did. This must have been some kind of...wrestling-themed underground club? Fiona led them to a private glass booth above the bleachers. It was clearly a VIP viewing area.

This, at least, wasn't surprising. Fiona always had an "in" at the establishments she took him to, and this place was no exception.

"Back when I was in the business, this was just a basement. But word's gotten around, and some of the authorities have started taking a blind eye to our construction, and...well, they've expanded. I'm still close to most of the girls here, and they give us emeriti special seating."

She talked so little about her past, he should have snapped to attention. But he could barely focus on her words. It was like he'd stepped into some surreal wet dream. Every tier of bleacher was packed with women, only women, and all of them were between nearly and completely naked. A few sneered at him as he ogled them, but others smiled and pushed their chests forward, or spread their legs apart tantalizingly.

What was this place?!

In the middle of the arena there was a wrestling ring, raised about a foot off the ground and surrounded by thick blue ring ropes. A man and a woman stood on opposite sides of the ring.

Some kind of...fight club?

Both combatants were naked, like most of the audience. The woman was tall and thickly built, with biceps thicker than his own. She stretched out, unaware or uncaring of what bits she showed off. Her pussylips were pinched tightly together and shaven closely, and her breasts were taut and firm, large but barely bouncing with her motions. She looked like she was carved from marble, and her beautiful womanhood only partly masked how much muscle was packed onto that firm body. Her biceps, her abs, her legs...every inch of her oozed strength.

"Sofia's one of the best fighters in the league. You're lucky you get to see her. Some of her techniques are so efficient!"

Her opponent, on the other hand, looked like he'd never been to a gym in his life. He stood there awkwardly, gawking at the nude blonde across from him, doing nothing to prepare himself for whatever form of martial arts they were about to engage in. His cock started hardening as he ogled his hardbodied opponent, and his cheeks flushed red. Sofia cracked her knuckles nonchalantly, dropping her eyes to brazenly examine her opponents manhood. She scoffed, and Brad swore he saw a hint of a smile form. Clearly, she wasn't impressed.

Somewhere, a bell clanged.

"And....FIGHT!"

No explanation of the rules, no scoreboard, no ref. The woman sprang on the kid, like a tiger on a wounded gazelle. He made some wimpy jabs, but she took the blows without noticing and socked him hard in the face, her fist flattening his nose. Blood started to pour out, and he brought his hands up to his face, gasping in pain, dazed from the strength of the hit. Sofia exploited his temporary discombobulation and dropped to her knees, her face level with his bobbing cock (now, even dribbling a thin trail of precum; this kid must have been extremely horny). She pulled her elbow back, her hand curled into a tight fist, and slammed an uppercut into his balls, hard. Before he could collapse, another fist shot up between his legs, pinning his nuts into him again. He slowly sank down, fist after fist rocketing up into his twin orbs, each one compressing them sickeningly into his body.

Brad couldn't believe what he was seeing. "Fiona, what the fuck is this place?! She's...she's going to hurt him! He...he could end up sterile, with those kinds of blows and no...protection."

Fiona laughed. "Yeah, almost certainly. Sofia has a lot of experience. There's pretty much no chance of that one escaping with anything functional." She stood up and cheered. "Pop his balls, girl! Make that boy a eunuch!"

As if on cue, one of Sofia's musclebound arms sank into his crotch, deeper than before, and a muffled pop emanated from between the skinny guy's legs. His knees turned inward, his face contorted into a mask of pain, and he fell down shaking, his hands jammed between his legs.

"My...my ball! It's...she broke it!"

His pitiful cry echoed throughout the arena.

"Oooh, first pop of the night! That came fast! Usually the girls drag it out a bit, really make the guy last before...But Sofia never was one for much showmanship." Fiona's delight was a stark contrast to Brad's own nausea and horror.

On the mat, the boy was curled over in the fetal position, in too much pain to defend himself. Sofia squatted in front of him, and Brad saw his eyes widen at the view she immodestly presented him. She ignored his cries, and darted her hand between his arms. He gave another squawk as she grabbed his delicate bits. She yanked him forward by her newfound handle, pulling him into her bare chest.

He begged and pleaded desperately. "I'm so sorry, I surrender I surrender I give up, I don't want to fight, I swear I won't fuck you, I'll leave and I'll never tell anybody about-"

Sofia still ignored him. She pulled his sack up toward his chest and away from him, and the boy finally collapsed flat on his back. Sofia squatted on his chest, her bare pussy rubbing his belly as she gave the audience a perfect view between his legs. She looked back into the boy's eyes while her hands worked on his bloated scrotum. Her left hand pulled his manhood, both mushy and intact halves, down to the bottom of his scrotum, while her other probed through the chunks on the left side, crushing the larger remains and eliciting shrieks of pain from their owner.

"See, Sofia likes to make sure the first nut is totally broken before moving on to the second one, so she goes through their sack and crushes up all the-"

squish "AAAAAIIII!"

"-all the remaining bits of the first ball she breaks. Uppercuts like that tend to break the testicle into several large, sensitive pieces. They're not functional, but he can still feel everything in there. A squeeze or a stomp, or even a really well placed kick, will actually liquefy it so-"

"Fiona...what the FUCK is going on?!"

She stared back at him, blank faced.

"She..." Brad struggled to keep his composure, his gorge rising as another nut chunk splattered wetly between Sofia's fingers on stage. "She's going to castrate him!"

Fiona giggled. "Well, yeah. Of course. Fiona almost went pro at one point. It'd be embarrassing if she lost to a boy, especially...that one."

"But...she just..."

"Half-neutered him?" Fiona shrugged. "It's what happens when you make boys and girls fight without any restrictions. The girl is going to win, and eventually..."

On stage, Sofia pressed her thumbs deep into his last testicle, making it bulge dangerously against his taut scrotum. The kid fell back, his eyes rolling up into his head, his body twitching in pain. He was screaming deliriously, his pleas turned to gibberish. His fruit stretched oddly beneath her thumbnails. He moved from incomprehensible pleading to agonized sobs, clearly giving up hope of keeping even half of his sex intact. Sofia didn't seem to notice his agony, and kept twisting the nut around, jerking it one way, then the other, while putting all of her strength into compressing it into a space much smaller than it could fit in.

Her hands came together at last as his testicle gave way violently.

"...the guy is going to end up nutless. Hey, I taught her that technique! Great form, Sofia!" Fiona stood and cheered.

She finally stood up, and two of the muscular women patrolling the arena walked on stage and dragged him off by his feet. Between his legs, his scrotum rolled around unnaturally, like an overfull water balloon, painfully demonstrating that there was nothing testicle shaped left inside. As the women moved him, his cock gave an unnatural twitch, and began oozing a steady waterfall of liquified ball and unspent semen. A slick trail forming behind him as he shuddered and gasped, and the audience cheered on. His subduers took almost no notice of his leaks, save when one spurt was just long enough to hit the back of the heel of the one carrying his left ankle. She stopped for just a second, turned around and slammed her heel down into his nearly-empty ballbag. He ejected the final bit of testicular viscera, finally subduing to the intense pain and losing consciousness. Brad struggled to keep his lunch down.

Behind the gruesome smear, the blonde looked up at Fiona and gave a subtle nod of recognition before walking offstage, carefully avoiding the mush painted across the mat.

"Aw, she remembers me! That's about the closest to emotion you'll see out of her."

"You...you used to fight in here?"

"Oh god, I was a regular. A star, even. When I left, I was top of the leaderboard! 102 eunuchs made. At least, on the mat." She smirked. "Still, I think she's close to topping me soon. I think today's the century mark for her."

"Fiona...Are you mad?!'"

"No, of course not! Other girls might get jealous if their protege started to outshine them, but for me, It's incredibly flattering to see the student become the master. I do wish I'd ended at a nice round number, like 200 or 150 or something, so it would be more poetic when my record was broken, but--"

"No, I mean...Are you CRAZY?!' You neutered one hundred men, just for fun?!'"

"One hundred and two." She corrected. "And...it wasn't strictly fun. It's either castration, or get raped by them. It's how our contract works, and I wasn't particularly interested in taking hundreds of anonymous cocks, just so I could let their owners stay fertile. Would've left me pretty stretched out for you, right?"

"It's just...it's so brutal. I..."

She sighed. "See, it's reactions like this that make the organizers bar males from watching. You always sympathize so much with the guy on the mat, and you get all freaked out. It's not your balls that are getting busted here, so just relax. It's all for fun. They sign waivers when they agree to the fight. They know what they're getting into, and on the off-chance they actually win, they get a fantastic fuck. Plus, they get to show off their junk to thousands of women. Some guys find that to be enough of a turn-on to agree to the contract." She glanced over at her boyfriend's groin."Speaking of which...you should be naked by now."

Brad looked up at her, confused.

"Sorry, club rules. The few times men are allowed in the arena, the club mandates that they are butt naked. Seriously, they respect me enough to let me bring you in here, but I won't be able to save you from the enforcers if they notice you're still clothed."

Brad swallowed nervously. They were above most of the audience, but their private viewing box had transparent walls. He'd be visible to hundreds of women who were hungry for testicular destruction. "Do...do I really have to?"

Fiona rolled her eyes, that way she always did when she thought he was being immature. "Don't worry, nobody's going to focus on your junk. The show on the mat is much more interesting. Seriously, get those pants off ASAP. I don't want to have to take you to the hospital after the enforcers get to you just because you were too embarrassed to follow the rules. One of my close friends is on the mat later, and I don't want to miss her."

Brad reluctantly dropped his pants, and Fiona rested her hand comfortably around his low-hanging sack, the way she always did when they were at home, curled up naked on the couch or cuddling in bed. Usually, he loved the gentle feeling of his nuts rolling around in his girlfriend's hand, safe with the knowledge that this goddess (and that was how he had thought of her, at least before today) would never hurt his most vulnerable organs. His newfound knowledge of Fiona's sadistic past made the feeling of her hand around his bare testicles much more nerve-racking.

"There, isn't that better?" Fiona gave his balls a gentle tweak, and Brad shuddered. "Look, the next fight's going to start soon."

Two more naked combatants walked onto the mat. These two looked more evenly matched than the last slaughter. He was a well-muscled black man, with a stereotypically prodigious manhood. His cock flopped down nearly a foot from its base, his soft length longer than his predecessor's erection. His opponent was a short, lean asian girl, maybe half her opponent's weight, in shape but lacking Sofia's Olympian musculature.

"Don't underestimate Amy. Guys always underestimate her. She's a blackbelt, and she can wipe the floor with any man with a cup on. In a nude fight...Well, I'd say it's not pretty, but that's obviously not true. Plus, she's got a medical degree, so she knows about all kinds of things that hurt. Hell, she probably knows more about your balls than you do."

Brad squeaked as Fiona emphasized balls with a sharp squeeze. "Honey, could...could you be more careful? That one hurt pretty bad."

She flashed him a devious grin. "Sorry honey, having a pair of balls in my hand while I'm in the arena...Kind of a force of habit, you know." She eased off a fraction, but still maintained a firm, constant pressure. Brad decided it was wisest if he didn't press the issue.

"Oh shit, I know that guy!"

Her grip tightened again in excitement, and Brad coughed. The incessant nagging discomfort had turned into a stomach-churning ballache.

"That's Wesley! I work with him! Holy shit, he's hung. The girls from work really weren't lying when they said he was the biggest cock they'd ever seen." Indeed, Wesley's cock hung down almost past to his knees, and his balls hung low and heavy in his expansive ballsack. "Man, it is going to be awkward seeing him at work after this fight. He loves that thing. I swear, every girl in the office started sleeping with him once word got around."

Brad couldn't help feeling jealous. In high school, he'd been the prime cock around. He slept with whoever he wanted, stealing girlfriends away from their nerdy boyfriends with his eight-inch cock and talent in bed. He never saw his relationships as strictly monogamous, at least for himself. He was a young man, and he sowed his oats where he could. Fiona had put an end to that. She made it clear she suffered no cheating, and that his first priority would always be her.

She had him wrapped around her finger in a way none of his exes ever had. He'd been so in lust with her he'd never even thought about straying. Now, he shuddered to think of what the consequences could have been if he had. If he'd fallen back into his old high school habits, he was sure Fiona would have castrated him.

Unlike Sofia, Amy was very interested in playing to the crowd. She smiled and waved, bouncing about, showing off her perky tits and tight ass to the audience and her opponent. The two cocks in the arena started to harden. Wesley's jutted out far in front, tracing a foot-long shadow on the foam mat, and Brad's cock thickened, less pornographic but still a respectable eight inches, bobbing above his girlfriend's uncomfortably tight fist.

The bell clanged, and Amy strutted forward, still displaying her assets. Her opponent was enjoying the show, but he seemed ready, wary of his weak spot, keeping his hands close and defensive of his crotch. He must have read the waiver more carefully. Or maybe he just deduced what happened to the last contestant: There was still a conspicuous trail of testicular matter and drying cum, streaked white and pink across the foam mat.

Amy got close to him, one hand between her legs, one hand playing with her breasts. "Hey, you know, we don't have to fight." She smiled sweetly at him, her hand drifting between his legs. He instinctively clutched his nuts, but she only touched his throbbing hardness, slowly stroking him.

Arousal cleared the fear and anger in his eyes, and he moaned deeply. His balls were huge and blue. Her hand was barely big enough to fit around the enormous cockhead, but Amy didn't let the mismatch in size get in the way of her work. She brought both hands down around his dick and squeezed the crown of his circumcised cock, circling the sensitive skin roughly as he pumped more precum for her to lube him with. Then she started to pump, stroke after luxurious stroke, from base to tip of the massive member. His balls joggled around loosely at first, then drew up close to his body as he drew closer to orgasm.

He started to moan. The poor fool thought he was safe. Amy grinned as she changed strategy, keeping one hand pumping his cock and the other glued around his dark pink head. She circled the sensitive tip, shiny slick with juices, and Wesley let out a guttural moan. Brad could tell he was approaching the brink of climax.

He finally let go of his balls, and Amy took the opening, her fist shooting below his dick to grab the sensitive bundle. Wesley's eyes shot wide as he realized he'd been tricked, and he roared with frustration and pain when Amy dug her thumbs deep into his blueballs right as she let go of his precum-slick cock. His denied cock bobbed angrily, clearly frustrated at the sudden lack of stimulation. He had been so close.

"Ooooh, that's gotta suck! He was about to cum, and he's so backed up! Amy really knows what she's doing. See how she's digging into the back-"

Crunch.

Fiona mimicked the actions of the female combatant, her thumb sinking into a nerve-filled lump on the back of his nut. Brad's eyes watered.

"Fiona... Careful, fuck!"

"Yeah, yeah, I know. Painful, isn't it? It's a really efficient way to neuter a guy. If I were to dig my thumb in a little bit more right...here. It hurts even more when they're as cumswollen and denied as his, trust me."

Brad whimpered wordlessly.

Fiona continued, unperturbed."It'd be kind of disappointing if she goes that route though. Sofia's bout felt like it was over so fast, and what's the point of ballbusting a guy if his nuts are broken before any of the girls in the audience get a chance to cum?"

Fiona's sharp thumbnail felt like it was only millimeters away from exploding leftie like a grape. Brad took deep snorting breaths, trying to stifle his tears through the pain. He could barely move, but his counterpart in the ring wasn't so easily disabled. Wesley roared and smacked Amy away from his sack. He was hurt, but not debilitated. He leaned over the prone Asian girl, smiling grimly.

"Don't worry, I won't bruise you. I want you looking just as pretty as you are when I'm fucking--"

Her knee shot between his legs, and she rolled him over and kicked him off. He stumbled up off the ground, but she was too fast for him. Uppercut after uppercut flew into his stomach, knocking the wind out of him. When he bent over to block, she flew behind him, using his own weight to bring him backwards onto her knee, crushing his swollen package in his own hands as he tried in vain to protect himself.

She backed away, allowing her opponent to catch his breath. "Don't want to end this one too fast, ladies! I know we're all a little disappointed that a cock this nice is getting taken out of rotation, right?"

The crowd shrieked, and Fiona joined along enthusiastically, shouting taunts. "I would've fucked you, Wesley! Anytime you asked! Even though I have a boyfriend, his cock's not as nice as yours! I've always had a crush on you, and now you're going to be neutered forever! You'll never get a chance at these!" She pulled off her shirt and bared her chest, and Brad could see Wesley's eyes focus on his girlfriend's tits, first squinting in confusion, then opening in surprise.

Brad was stunned. What was she doing? What was she saying?!

"Fiona...What the hell?!"

She rolled her eyes. "It's just cheering, Brad. It doesn't mean anything. It's just fun to give the guy a little something to remember when he wakes up at the hospital ball-less! It's tradition; if the guy's cock is long enough, he gets the privilege of hearing how much it's appreciated before we break him." She twisted Brad's sack away from him, her fingernails beginning to leave impressions in his skin. "Honestly, this is another part of why I never told you about this place! I knew you'd be all judgy."

"Ok, OK! Christ, you can cheer, or do whatever, but...Fiona, please, you're...you're really hurting me!" He tried to pull away, but she flexed a muscle and kept her grip tight around him. She was strong, incredibly strong. How had he never noticed this? What could she do to him if she used all her strength? He shuddered and backed his mind away from those dangerous thoughts. She'd already told him exactly what she could do; no point imagining it.

"You'll be fine. Look, the fight's starting again!"

Wesley had caught his breath, and was standing straight up. His cock still jutted out healthily, but his balls had transformed grotesquely. They took up almost the entire slack in his veiny sack, grown from chicken eggs to oranges, and he had to keep a wide stance to avoid crushing them any further. It would not be an easy area for him to defend. He kept his fists up and did his best to look intimidating, but it was obvious he was fighting a bout of nutpain that put Brad's to shame. Brad tried to be grateful his nuts weren't that damaged. Yet.

Wesley staggered forward, but his opponent was like water, diving between his legs, giving him a quick jab in the swollen scrotum and dodging his attacks. Even this light hit sent him reeling; whatever had happened to his testicles had apparently left them incredibly sensitive. Amy stood up behind him and pulled her leg back. Brad cringed in anticipation and sympathy as it slammed forward, sending Wesley's balls flying above his asshole.

"Oooh, looks like she's rusty. She barely hurt him with that," Fiona said, shaking her head.

On the stage, Wesley was struggling to remain standing as his bloated nuts slapped wetly into him again and again, Amy's fists a blur between his legs. "He...he looks plenty hurt to me."

"Well yeah, boys act that way from like, any ball hit. Like, I'm barely doing anything to you and you look like you're going to pass out. But if she really wants to do some damage, she needs a hard flat surface behind those nuts. She can't get that in this position, so what she should be trying to do is use his own body against him, and slam those things into his pelvic bone. Then you get the pressure from both sides, and you get double the strength. Remember, that's how Sofia popped her first nut?" As if to illustrate her point, she pinched hard on Brad's left nut with her thumb and forefinger, putting pressure onto it from both sides, almost turning the round orb into a donut.

"Mmmmmmmfff.....nnggh-AAAAAAAIIIIII!"

"Honey, do you understand what I mean?"

The nutpain from her tight grip had fried every neuron in his brain. Words escaped him. He could only vocalize his agony as Fiona cruelly squished his unborn children. He could swear he felt something crunch dangerously, but when he looked down at the purple bundle in his girlfriend's hands, he could still identify both spheres. Sort of.

Fiona stood up and rolled her eyes, clearly unsatisfied with his answer. "Here, let me show you with her positioning." She finally let go, and Brad slid out of his seat and crumpled to the ground, his ass high in the air with his nutsack peeking out.

"Brad you need to stand up for me to...Fine. I can show you in this position too, it's the same principle." She pried his fingers off his nuts, and he finally found his voice.

"Fiona, stop! For the love of god, if you kick me in the nuts one more time, I...I think something's going to pop!" He tried not to focus on how much his pleading sounded like Sofia's victim. His girlfriend was surely more merciful than the cruel woman on stage. He wanted to stand up so badly; he knew being bent over like this, his balls poking between his buttcheeks, presented Sofia with a too-perfect opportunity. The pain was bad, but if he could just manage to get to his feet....

Between his legs and behind him, he felt sharp fingernails pulling at his ballsack. "There. I need them hanging down behind you a little bit." A sharp yank made him spasm with pain, but he could feel his nuts hanging, loose and unprotected against the back of his thighs.

SLAP

He spasmed again as Fiona's kick from behind sent his balls slapping against him. It was incredibly painful, but despite his fears, his more damaged ball didn't make that sickening crunch that had accompanied the onstage ruptures. He sagged forward more, his ass in the air, fuzzily aware he was presenting an even more vulnerable target but too wracked with pain to act.

"See? You're totally fine. I bet you barely even felt that!"

"It...it hurt a lot-"

"You'll feel this next one though, for sure!" And before he could defend himself, she sent her foot slamming into his crotch, trapping his testicles between her foot and the hardness of the bone behind.

Fiona's legs were what had attracted Brad in the first place. He remembered that first night, when he'd approached her in that dive bar, her muscular thighs peeking out from the bottom of her short skirt, toned calves crossed on the bottom rung of her barstool. She had grinned impishly over at him when he finally stopped ogling her body and met her look, and she had been the one to approach him. Sexy and strong, ten years his elder, she'd always led the way in their relationship, and whenever Brad found himself yearning for more independence, he reminded himself what a treasure those legs were.

But tonight, they weren't just for show.

Her foot flew up into his groin, and time seemed to slow down. With his balls even higher up, she could get more momentum before connecting. Onstage, Amy was sending her own foot into Wesley's crotch, and Brad could somehow foresee with absolute clarity what was going to happen. She had aimed correctly this time. Swift and hard, her foot collided with his nut as Fiona's did the same to Brad's. Both men had their testicles rammed into themselves, each nut ground between a bone-hard pelvis and the foot of a well-trained ballbuster. The result was inevitable.

Splat

SPLORCH

The rupturous splat from Wesley's first collapsed testicle echoed through the stadium.

Amy's kick had splattered the orange-sized mass of flesh inside his wrinkly sack, which had gone from stretched taut with volume to a much more comfortable, roomier configuration.

But Brad couldn't find the mind to be horrified at the nauseating sound. He stared between his own legs dumbly. Fiona put her foot down and brought her hand to her mouth in horror.

"Oh...Holy shit, I...I didn't think..."

He looked up at her with tears in his eyes.

"You...you popped my nut." He gasped, painfully aware how pathetic he sounded.

"Brad, I'm so sorry, I didn't mean to..."

"It's...it's ok." He sucked air in through his teeth as the shattered remains of his left ball settled painfully at the bottom of his sack. A ruptured testicle most certainly wasn't "ok", but Brad needed to keep his cool. His vision blurred with pain and tears, but he forced his shaking knees to stay straight, stay standing, keep himself from falling onto the floor again. He had a single nut left, and he needed to do everything he could to escape from this hellish arena with it intact. He sluggishly put together an escape plan, struggling to string together coherent thoughts through the mind-rending pain.

"I...I think you popped it, but...I'll be ok. Still got the other one, heh!" Brad forced a smile through gritted teeth. "I'll just pop off to the hospital real quick, get it sewed up, removed. No...worries!" His voice went gratingly shrill, and he squeezed his eyes shut in pain as another wave of agony surged through him from his shattered ball.

And then I'll go to the police, or the Feds, or hell, maybe the press if they've bought out the authorities. Somebody needs to know. Somebody need to shut this hellhole down, before any more "fights" happen down here.

Fiona looked at him, worried. Almost sympathetic, even.

"You're not going to go public on this, are you, Brad?"

He laughed shrilly, unconvincingly. "F...Fiona, honey, why would I ever do that? It's...heh, it's not like it's my balls on the line. What you do here, or elsewhere, in your free time, it's..."

"The eunuchs never tell on us, you know."

His breath caught in his throat.

Onstage, the nightmare continued. Wesley had collapsed in the fetal position. His sack puddled out behind him, the distinctive shape of his enormous remaining testicle still visible. Amy slipped her hand around it and pulled him gently to the side of the ring, turning him around so he was visible to the audience and his testicle rested on one of the thick, taut vinyl ropes that made up the perimeter of the wrestling mat.

"It'd be a shame to break this boy before we can see what he can really do with this thing, wouldn't it? Who thinks we should give this nut a memorable sendoff?"

Wesley gurgled negatively, but he was drowned out by cheers from the crowd. He started to attempt to crawl away.

"Oooh, can't let ya get away, mister!" Amy pulled the rope and twisted hard, making a loop with one hand. She used her other to guide his nut through the loop, her muscles bulging with effort to stretch the rope far away from its supports. Sticking her tongue out with effort, she finally thumbed the organ through and let go. The vinyl twanged loudly as it snapped shut tightly around his remaining nutcord. Wesley's gurgles rose in pitch.

"There we go! Now that I've got both hands free..." Amy sat down between his legs and once again started tugging on his long, thick member. Defying all reason, he started to harden, his cock growing into a thick black baseball bat, pointed stiffly at the mat. She tightened her grip and increased the speed, and the veins on his last testicle flared out darkly as his body tried to pull it in, crushing it against the tight rope. He twitched and released a spurt of clear precum, much to the noisy enjoyment of the crowd.

"You like that, don't you, big boy?" Another spurt of preejaculate coated his cockhead, and she giggled. "You must be sooooo backed up. Don't disappoint us now. Me and all the nice ladies in audience want to see you paint this mat with your cum."

He was steadily leaking precum now, a puddle of clear stickiness forming below his prodigious cock. He struggled to escape, but only succeeded in stretching his poor nut painfully away from himself. Amy sped up her pumping.

"Come on, this fight's gone on long enough, and there's more couples waiting. We can't end the bout until I castrate you, and I won't fix you until you cum." His shrieks came even louder, yet his cock shot an even bigger spurt of precum. Amy leaned in close to him, smiling, rubbing her naked chest against him.

"Cum for me, Wesley."

Her hand squeezed his cockhead again, and with a scream of despair he lost control. Brad watched, transfixed with horror, as the man on the mat bucked and started to spurt. Amy let go of his cock right as he started and swiftly grabbed each side of the rope that held his ball in place. She pulled away hard, garrotting through his last nutcord entirely. Wesley's final orgasm suddenly cut off only milliseconds in as the supplier of his cum was abruptly severed from his body, falling low and rolling around disconnected in his sack among the remains of its broken brother. He wheezed miserably before mercifully passing out at last, his body spasming in shock.

Brad knew he needed to leave if he wanted to avoid the same fate, but he couldn't help but freeze, rooted in place by sympathetic horror. He tried to force himself to keep moving, hoping against hope that at least one man would escape this place with a functioning testicle.

But suddenly Fiona was between his legs, her fist wrapped around his own half-broken manhood. A fresh burst of agony came from his surviving gonad. A sudden jerk, a twist, a squeeze...He grabbed hold of the arm between his legs, shoving frantically, trying to release her grip, but it was like trying to bend iron.

"I don't know why they never tell on us. Maybe they're too embarrassed about being nutless to reveal it to anyone. That's my theory, anyway. And...I know that look in your eyes. It's the way you look when I'm making you do something you don't want to do. I...I just don't think I can trust you to stay quiet once you're out of my hands. I only know of one way to actually keep you quiet."

Brad looked up at her despairingly, his eyes begging for mercy. He could barely keep hold of her arm. "Fiona, please, I'm sorry, I won't go to the police, or the press, I won't tell anyone ever, you...you can keep this place to yourself. Please, just...let me keep my last testicle."

She shook her head sadly. "I'm sorry, Brad. This is my favorite place in the whole city. I can't risk you ending it."

With a soft splut, Fiona's arm twitched beneath his grasp, and Brad's last nut collapsed. Something suddenly built up deep inside of him, a familiar warm pleasure running through his loins, and he grunted and writhed as he abruptly started to expel the contents of his scrotum. Pink and white globs arced up high, liquid and solid mixed, splattering across Fiona's barely covered chest. She looked down at him sympathetically, grimacing like she had any idea of the pain he was going through. But through it, he could just barely tell she was a tad satisfied with herself. This must have been the last thing those one hundred and two guys saw before...

Her foot slammed down on his sack, and any remaining solidity exploded into goo. His vision started to go black as he lost consciousness. Before he passed out, he could hear a voice through the darkness. It was his castratrix talking on the phone.

"Yeah, I'm in the audience right now. In the glass enclosure, top left from your...Yeah, I see you waving. Come up here before your next fight. I brought my boyfriend...well, ex-boyfriend now, in here with me, but I just kinda...neutered him. I should drop him off at the hospital, say my goodbyes and all that. Yeah..he got freaked out by the fight and I...I'll explain later. It was a...bit of a mess. Yeah, I'm just dripping with what's left of them right now."

"Don't worry, I'll be back before your round starts. And if there's an open slot in the schedule later this week, I want in. I'm coming out of retirement."

Until next time

You made it to the end. Hopefully your gonads are more functional than the ones you just read about.

I love hearing from readers. Whether you've got feedback, a request, an oddly specific scenario you've been dying to see written, a unformatted wall of text meticulously describing each and every ballbusting fantasy you've ever masturbated to, or just want to correct all of my typos, drop me a line.
