The Shy Girl

Minh Nguyen sat on the bench in the locker room, his leg jiggling nervously against his brother's. Both were in their underwear, conspicuously glancing at the raging boner tenting his twin's briefs.

"There's no way that waiver was real. It's got to be a prank, or like, a marketing thing." Hung assured him. "It cannot be legal to agree to be castrated in an MMA league."

"It specifically said it wasn't MMA, remember? It was very clear it didn't have the same rules." Minh pointed out. "It was very specific about groin hits being legal. And...much more than legal. Encouraged, really. And if the whole waiver is fake, the part about our 'victory prize'? The part where we get to, you know...have sex with our opponent? Isn't that the whole reason we're here?"

"No, dude, I'm telling you — It's like, a sex club thing. Girls go out there, do a whole 'girl power' 'fight' routine, and then it's like — oh noooo, the big strong men are overpowering me, I have to submit and let them ravage my tight little hole! Poor meeee, oh no, now I'm cumming everywhere!" Hung made a lewd approximation of the ahegao faces in hentai they'd both jerked off to countless times. Minh smiled weakly.

"I promise, I heard about this through some really trustworthy guys — we are definitely going to lose our virginity today."

Minh looked away from his brother. "Ok. I'd just been hoping my first time would be... special, you know."

Hung sighed. "Look, I get it. It's weird, and I would've rather, you know...gotten with a girl alone, without my brother around either. But this is such a good opportunity for us, and we've been waiting so long — if we just stay in separate holes, and don't make eye contact, and don't let our balls touch —"

"Hi!" A squeaky voice interrupted him. Both guys turned and ogled their intruder.

"Um...you two are up for the next round, right? It said 'twins' when I signed up, so I figured it was you." She was staring brazenly at their barely-concealed packages, then looked around the empty locker room. "Plus, you're the only ones here. Hi! Um...I'm Natalie. Nice to meet you!" She waved shyly.

Her breasts were each a small but plump handful, topped with light pink nipples. Her goosebumped skin and small, stiff nipples spoke to just how cold it was in the locker room. A nimbus of brown curls framed her heart-shaped face and nervous smile. Her pussy hair was trimmed, but not shaved, a smattering of light brown curls dusting her tight pale lips.

Both guys were dumbstruck at the sight of the first naked woman they'd seen, up close, without paying. They didn't even register that this girl had just walked into a men's locker room without so much as a warning.

"Um...You are the Nguyen brothers, right?"

"Yes." Hung stopped drooling just long enough to respond.

"Nice to meet you guys! Just wanted to say hi before we hit the arena. I mean, I already did twice. Or, I guess three times now. Haha! Um. Sorry! Anyway, this is my first time, and I'm really excited! And nervous, honestly," she stammered.

"Hi," said Minh. "I'm Minh."

"I'm Hung. It's...our first time too," Hung added, trying to think of something else to say to the very naked, very anxious woman.

She smiled. "Well, of course I know that. Are you guys going to..." She motioned. The little remaining blood going to the brothers' brains didn't leave them enough oxygen to understand her.

"Your boxers. You need to take them off. You're really not supposed to be clothed at all inside the building — refs come by locker rooms for spot checks, and if they see you're still wearing anything in here, they will...'disqualify' you on the spot. So..." She cocked her head. "You two really should get naked. Like, now."

The twins slid their briefs down. Minh's nuts still hung low between his thighs; his brother's scrotum was drawn up close, tight against his throbbing cock. Minh's own meaty pole started stirring to life as he nervously drank in every inch of her skinny, naked body.

Her eyes lit up with her own obvious excitement at the sight of their own nudity, and Minh swore he could see her pussy moisten.

"Wow. This...this is going to be a really fun bout." She bit her lip and blushed. "Well, I gotta go prepare. See you in the ring!"

As she took off, and the two virgins admired the sight of her small, but perfectly round pale buttocks bouncing off to the girl's locker room, Hung turned to Minh with a grin.

"Now, are you still unsure what this is about? That girl was practically drooling at the prospect of getting spit roasted by us. Trust me, dude, this is going to be hella fun."

"Yeah...I guess you're right." Minh knew his brother had a point. He always did.

Technically, he was the older twin by a matter of a whole four minutes, but Hung had always acted as his older brother. Even though they were equally virginal, Hung knew more about the world of girls and BDSM and sex clubs and threesomes and all of this crazy, kinky stuff Minh only imagined. At least, Hung talked about it all a lot more.

"Come on, bro. You saw that girl. Did she look like some feminazi castratrix? Hell, did she look anywhere near strong enough to take on both of us at once in a fight? She was blushing and stuttering and practically drooling over our cocks. She's just some nerdy, repressed girl here to act out some sexy fantasies with us. And we're going to give her exactly what she wants."

Hung leaned back, his cock fully at attention and bobbing eagerly. He was slowly stroking the thick, uncircumcised organ, his embarrassment about being seen by his brother apparently gone. Minh wondered if he even noticed that he was jacking off, or if it was just a reflex to Natalie's brazen display. He looked down, and had his answer as he realized he'd been doing the same; he was gripping his own, lovingly coaxing it from a half chub to a full boner, his own precum drooling down his hand.

Both men realized what they were doing and blushed, deeply embarrassed, but neither let go of themselves.

Minh tried to distract himself from his anxiety and the embarrassment of being teased into jerking off in front of his brother. He focused on Hung's self-assurance, assuaging the tiny niggling voice of doubt that kept asking him why they'd had to sign the waiver, and how Natalie had known it was their first time, too.

Natalie rushed to the bench in the locker room, grateful that her bout was too early in the day for anyone else to be around. Not that she was exactly shy about touching herself in front of the other girls.

She plopped down on the bench and spread her legs, her hand flying between her slicked thighs as she savored the memory of the two boys she was about to fight.

She'd fantasized about signing up for so long. She'd attended dozens of matches, always too scared to sign up herself, always too turned on to avoid rubbing herself until she gushed all over her seat while the fighters for the week danced their dangerous, humiliating, life-changing dance on the mat. Every time a testicle liquefied beneath an opponent's knee, or popped in her hand, she'd savor every sound, every tiny motion, every microexpression in the newly made eunuch's face as she climaxed loudly above them in the stands. At home, in her bed, sometimes she'd cum spontaneously just thinking about it, fantasizing about being the woman to usher an innocent man out of the gene pool, out of his own sex life forever...God, she loved castration.

She'd done it, once. Just once. Up until now, it was the single most defining moment of her life. That day she'd popped David's cherries, first the left one as she'd landed with her whole weight on it, the gonad detonating into mush as he sobbed, restrained, in so much pain but relieved it was over — then the right one, squeezed while he shrieked and pleaded for her to stop, futilely reminding her he'd only agreed to let her take one, finally begging her to keep something intact, to not take his last scrap of masculinity —

Natalie pulled her hand away from her clit. She twitched and moaned, forcibly having to keep her hand away from her crotch, riding the edge while cruelly denying herself relief. Her clit stuck out, pink and wet and almost angrily twitching at the sudden reduction in pleasure. She'd been a hair away from relieving her tension all over the bench beneath.

But she needed to hold off. If she orgasmed now, she might lose her libido, might get the post-girl-nut clarity that would make her lose her nerve to go through with what she'd wanted for so long. When she calmed down just enough to retreat from the edge, she started touching herself again, circling her sensitive pink clit with one hand and pinching a nipple with the other, thinking about boys other than David — like those two cute, innocent brothers she was about to ruin for life.

Doing it to a stranger had been a big hurdle to get over. It'd been the main thing blocking her from signing up for so many years: She wanted her castrations to be special, with a guy she knew and loved and cared about. Self-defense classes had taught her body how to destroy them, but she'd needed therapy to get her mind ready. Luckily, her therapist was very good at her job. Working with Dr. Karen had taught Natalie how to let down her walls just a tad and enjoy castration with any man, not just ones she was attracted to.

Although she had to admit the two were pretty cute.

She wondered if they had any other siblings, or if she'd be clipping their family tree to a stub by neutering them both. Then she thought about her friend Brian, who'd be in the benches, watching her as she did it, hopefully jerking himself off, spurting his own cum everywhere while she came like a banshee in front of the whole arena with the twins crying and begging for mercy and holding their mushy ballsacks, their final loads splattered across the rubber mat —

She whimpered and bucked against the bench, barely holding herself back from completion as she edged again.

Hung and Minh couldn't believe it was real. They stood in the center of the arena, illuminated by bright spotlights high above. The square rubber mat was fenced with ring ropes, and beyond that was a sight pornographic beyond belief.

"We've got a treat for you tonight, folks! Natalie, a brand new entrant to the arena, will be facing off against two identical twins! That's four nuts on the line here — and big ones, too — and just one girl to defend herself from their owners! Give it up for Natalie!"

A dozen tiers of audience members ringed the arena, looking down eagerly on them. Nearly every one of the hundreds of seats was occupied by a naked woman, although a few bobbing cocks could be seen scattered between. Tall women, short women, thick ones, skinny ones. Massive breasts and tiny mosquito bites and little muffin-sized ones bounced and jiggled and swayed enticingly in every seat around them.

And right in front, not twenty feet away from them, was their opponent, just as nude. Natalie waved awkwardly at them as the voice above announced the start of the fight. She squinted awkwardly as the spotlight blinded her, giving the lusty crowd a timid wave.

Minh relaxed, just a tad. His brother was right. There was no way this girl had actually signed up for something violent.

The announcers were awfully convincing sounding though.

"You're telling me this little waif hasn't popped a single nut? And she signed up for a double?!"

"Let's wait to see how she performs, Valerie. She's come to a lot of shows before. Literally, if I'm not mistaken. She knew what she was getting into when she signed up. I'd bet our girl's got a few tricks up her sleeve."

"Hung, should we...uh...go on both sides of her? Try to surround her in like a...pincer formation?"

His brother stared at Minh like he grew two heads, then snorted. "It's not a real fight, I told you." He briefly considered. "Although, that will make fucking her easier. Yeah, let's do a 'pincer' formation. Look, she's already coming towards us for —"

Natalie tried to focus on what she'd learned in her self-defense class. She tried to avoid staring at the two bobbing, dripping cocks and four identical testicles arranged before her, and focus on her striking. She tried to ignore the whispering urges of her libido and the slick wetness between her thighs at the thought of what she would get to do to the four organs. She mostly succeeded.

Her right hook caught Hung with a sharp crack across the face. He was shocked, like he didn't expect her to hit him. When Minh tried to cut in and defend his brother, she uppercut him hard, feeling his jaw crack against her fist. And when Hung started to get back up—

She pivoted, so Hung was at her three o'clock and Minh was at her six, and drove her bony knee up into Hung's naked crotch, hard. His huge, smooth hairless balls flattened against his pelvis. Minh was behind her, attempting to get a grip on her while avoiding her blows. She brought her heel up hard into his nuts, moaning as the soft, squishy nuggets deformed beneath her kick and he exhaled hard in pain. A toe kick forward into his brother's crotch left Hung wheezing too. Hands grabbed her waist; Minh had recovered from her first kick. She brought her heel up again, and again even harder.

Something crunched beneath her heel, and the boy behind her let out a high-pitched gasp.

"There it is folks - the first crunch of the night! But definitely not the last — I bet Natalie's just getting started!"

She'd just caused permanent damage. She knew it, immediately. Even if she stopped now, for the rest of his life, his sperm count would be a little lower, his libido just a little more muted. Not that she was going to stop now, after how far she'd come. She tried not to moan as he fell to the floor, rolling around, and finally passed out. Natalie turned, blushing, to his brother.

Hung stared slack-jawed as he watched the shy, blushing nerdy girl decimate his brother's manhood, his bruised jaw and testicles aching, the taste of blood from where he'd bit his tongue filling his mouth. Fear, anger, pain and nausea all warred within him. That last wet crunch beneath her heel moved him to action.

"You...you bitch!" He charged at her, staggering slightly. Minh was motionless on the ground.

"I'm sorry," she whispered to him, almost blushing. Hung could see her pussy was still wet. He swung, but she dodged, faster than he thought she could move. Beneath her slim, lithe frame, her arms and legs rippled subtly with muscle. Muscle that drove her knee up between his legs, lifting him off the ground and driving the breath out of him. He could feel his balls flattening between the cartilage of her kneecap and his pelvis. Before he could defend himself, she stomped down and repeated it, kneeing him again, and again, her foot thudding against the ring before flying back up into his testicles, crunching over and over as —

Natalie did her best to follow her lessons from self-defense, the repeated practice on the worn-out dummy at the community center with the two hacky sacks between its legs. When she'd first signed up for the class, she couldn't even squish them flat; by the end of her year of training, the instructor had to replace the torn fabric orbs every other week. She'd masturbated to the mere thought of that, their surface breaking apart, the beans inside spilling out, just as she could feel the same thing gradually happening to the two very real, fleshy counterparts beneath her knee.

She pulled the real-life dummy closer to her, batting his arms away as she continued, whispering reassuringly into his ear even as she destroyed his balls for her own pleasure.

"I'm sorry. I know it hurts." Whump.

"I am. I am so so sorry. I know you're a man. I know they're important to you, and you wanted to keep them - " whump, CRUNCH.

"You wanted to have sex again." She pulled him into her modest breasts to smother his screams as she kneed him again.

"You might've wanted to have kids. You really should have known better. You shouldn't have come to the arena." She let him go, and he collapsed to the floor in pain, groaning.

He was crying now. "I...I didn't know. I thought it was fake."

She winced. "It's not."

"Please...please don't castrate me. Please just...I won't fuck you. I promise. We just...we thought we could...lose our virginity. We thought you wanted it."

VIRGINITY.

Natalie bit her lip. "You two...you've never had sex?"

"No!" Hung's voice was desperate but hopeful at the hint of mercy he heard in her voice.

"That's...." Her eyes started to well with tears.

"I'm so sorry, I am, but that....that makes it so hot for me. I know it's super messed up, but deep inside...I just want to take that from you. I've fantasized about it forever." Natalie couldn't hold back anymore; her hand started moving between her legs of its own accord.

"....WHY?!" He screeched. She rolled him over and spread his knees apart. He tried to close them, desperately trying to protect his crotch. He was certainly stronger than her. But it didn't look like he had any training or preparation at all. Natalie had learned that strength could get you far, but technique and strategy mattered more. She stomped on top of his hands, and he coughed as he felt his own balls squish between his fingers.

A woman in horn-rimmed glasses in the front row stood up and shouted at him. "Move! Move your fucking hands! You aren't going to protect them anyway, she's just going to break your fingers! And I can't see shit with them in the way."

"Because...I don't know. It's just the way I am. I know I'm messed up." She stomped again.

"I can't help myself." She stomped again, wincing and moaning at the crunch beneath her foot.

"I need this so badly, Hung. You don't understand what it's like to fantasize about something for so long and be so close. I...I just can't hold myself back at this point."

"I've only gotten to do it once, in real life. It took me a long time to get the nerve to sign up in the arena so I could try again. I just...I'm sorry, and I know it's hard to hear, but I really need this. For myself. You'll be ok. I promise. My ex-boyfriend still has a perfectly healthy life. I—"

A blow from behind knocked her down.

When Minh came to, his testicles were still burning. From the ground he stared up at Natalie. Even through the pain, he couldn't help but appreciate her smooth, round cheeks, her thighs scissoring apart to expose her naked pussylips with each cruel stomp.

He'd realized the waiver wasn't a joke. Everything they'd consented to — and the lifelong side effects that would come with being castrated — was possible now. This wasn't a sex game about losing their virginity anymore. He couldn't even be mad at his idiotically optimistic brother. His brother who might not remain a brother much longer, at the rate her cruel foot was pummeling his bloating ballsack.

Minh got to his feet and charged at their unassuming castratrix. He hugged her around the waist, his rock-hard cock sliding between her buttcheeks and poking upward into his belly, and knocked her down. He tried not to think of that heavenly feeling of her tight cheeks rubbing against his sensitive frenulum, inciting his cock to drool precum down her buttcrack. He needed to focus on defending his poor, stupid, arrogant brother.

"Oh!" Natalie stumbled forward and fell, allowing Hung the chance to roll over and curl into the fetal position, retching and feeling up the permanent injuries she'd left on his battered manhood. Minh cringed at the purpling bruises webbing his bro's scrotum and prayed he'd still get the chance to be an uncle. His cock slid forward between Natalie's thighs, deliciously rubbing against her slick pussylips.

"Wow! You recovered faster than they warned us in my class." She didn't seem put off by Minh's throbbing organ. They fell forward and collapsed onto the floor, and Minh could feel her rubbing herself against him as he lay on top of her. She looked behind herself and flashed a timid smile at him. His face was buried in her hair. He tried to ignore the scent of lilac shampoo and sweat and female musk and the slick feeling on his cock.

He needed to focus. Should he hit her? Slam her face into the ground, or punch her in the... back? Minh had no idea how to fight anyone, and every instinct he had stopped him from hitting a woman. He just kept his bear hug around her, unconsciously moving his hands up to her breasts, feeling the soft give of her flesh beneath his fingers as she started to push back against him.

Natalie knew she should be fighting back harder. The virgin boy behind her was inches away from penetration. The crowd was booing him, cheering her to go harder, on them both, to get up, fight back, make sure they left the arena permanently virginal as they'd entered it.

But it had been so long since she'd had sex. She was too shy to approach guys, especially ever since...David. Her fingers and toys had been adequate, but Minh's dick was much more than that. She'd always tried to be a good girl, but his thick, pulsing, virginal cock was right up against her — millimeters inches from plunging inside and pressing so deliciously against her g-spot...

>Even a good girl has needs, sometimes.

She pushed herself to her knees, lifting herself up, spreading her legs apart so she was on her knees in front of him, with his cocktip aligned with her sex. She looked back at the blushing, flustering boy who was still figuring out how to defend himself.

"Hey. M-Minh," She stammered. "It's ok. You can stick it in. I'm really, uh...Wet, already." The poor virgin still didn't seem to grasp her meaning.

"Really. You want to lose your virginity, right? I promise, you can go for it." She spread her lips apart with her fingers, showing him the pinkness inside her pussy, but still he hesitated.

The poor guy must be nervous too. She remembered her first time with David; she was a nervous wreck, and had no idea what she was doing. Natalie was hardly an experienced vixen, with a body count of a whopping one, but she could still help the anxious virgin.

Of course, she would've preferred to castrate him before he'd had the chance to change that. Like most girls she knew, neutering a virgin before he had a chance to feel sexual pleasure was her deepest fantasy. But she needed him distracted if she was going to win the lopsided matchup.

>She slid her hand between her legs and grabbed his ballsack, pulling him forward while she took the opportunity to roll her thumb over all the softened spots she'd left from her first attack. Minh inhaled sharply, both in pain and arousal, as he slid into her. When he hilted his prodigious manhood entirely inside her, she felt him moan in ecstasy at the loss of his virginity.

She took the opportunity to strengthen her grip on his testicles. Rolling them around, digging into the softer regions as she did, she finally found the particular spot in the back she'd spent so many practices digging her thumbs into. She put her lessons to the test and dug in, hard. His epididymis shifted and gave way beneath her digits, and she heard him scream even as he started to shakily hump her. Natalie knew the pressure on his tightly packed nerve endings was excruciating.

A lot of girls thought the center of the testes was the source of a boy's fertility, but she'd read the books. The center was the same undifferentiated nutmeat as the rest of the gonad. The best way to excise a boy from the gene pool was unspooling those squiggly bits right at the back of the gonads, where his spermatic cords connected them to his body, where his testicles stored all of their produced sperm, every son and daughter he'd ever produce waiting to escape and fertilize someone tightly packed into that ultrasensitive region. Putting pressure on that could drive a guy irrational and crazy, even before he'd...popped.

Minh was demonstrating that well. Even through the pain, he sped his humping, heedless of the pain he must've been enduring through her steel trap grip. It was like he was trying to tear his balls out of her hands, against all rational thought. The pain and immediate danger had short circuited his brain, giving his base lizard brain control of his body. The only thing that mattered to him was cumming, every cell in his body desperately trying to empty his balls into the only fertile female around regardless of his future sex life.

Or maybe he was just eager to really lose his virginity. Either way, Natalie squeezed his nuts tighter and tighter as he spasmed against her, keening pathetically at the pain of his flattening gonads and stretching nutcords.

High above in the stands, reactions were mixed.

"She's letting him fuck her? Ugh, so lame! I mean, a 2 on 1 is hard, but that's so cheap. She better not let him cum!"

"No, look, between his legs! She's got a mean grip going. Girl's aiming to splatter at least one of them before he gets a chance to really lose his virginity."

"She better hurry up! His balls are drawing up into him — Or wait, is she just pulling them forward? I can't see shit."

"I hope she's on birth control — although she might be squeezing hard enough it doesn't matter. I've seen girls pinch hard a boy's balls so hard they couldn't let out a single sperm, even as they came!"

Natalie winced apologetically at the audience, trying not to make it clear how much she enjoyed the turgid cock that was clumsily prodding at her insides. She waved to them and tried to make her own pathetic defense.

"I...I have to distract him...Sorry! I...It's hard....I can't — Facing...facing two—"

Her stutter was so bad, she doubted anyone past the first row could hear her. She gave up and turned around to Minh, who was grimacing in pain as she worked his left nut over with both of her thumbs. "Sorry to you, too."

Hung's relief at his brother's recovery turned to horror as he watched Minh slide into her pussy. He felt betrayed. More than anything though, he felt jealous. He told himself Minh was just distracting her, taking her focus away from busting his nuts, but Hung wasn't sure he believed himself.

Natalie's eyes rolled back into her head when his brother's nuts slammed into her clit, and she bit her lip shyly while locking eyes with him.

"Don't blame your brother. Boys can never resist. Even with their balls on the line." Her eyes flicked down to his own member, still quivering disloyally between his legs. He wished he could say he didn't understand Minh's actions, but the truth was if she'd presented him the same invitation he would've done the same. From the darkening bruises beneath her thumbs on Minh's sack, Hung wasn't even sure he was truly jealous of his brother.

The bruises were turning purple, but Minh did nothing to stop her. Hung should really push him away, knock him out of the pussy fever that had gripped him...

"You know...I've got um. I've got a mouth. If you and your brother were planning on, you know...tag teaming' me?" — her face blushed even harder, somehow, although she was already red and sweaty as Minh shakily pumped his cock in and out of her — "Now's the time."

...But Hung couldn't resist his own temptation.

He wasted no time getting to his feet, taking hold of her head and hilding his cock down her throat. The previous threat to his testicles was a distant memory. He realized he'd been right all along. Whatever stuff Natalie had been saying was a lie, or a prank or... something. It definitely wasn't real.

What was real was her soft, warm mouth wrapped around his cock, her tongue flicking against his cockslit, and his sore, battered balls tightening up against her chin. She looked up at him and grinned, sliding even farther down somehow to take not just his cock but one of his balls into her mouth.

This move Natalie hadn't learned in class. Emma had demonstrated it to her well enough to mimic in dozens of matches while Natalie pleasured herself in the audience.

With Minh's nuts still slowly deforming in her hand, his scrotum tightening and his anguished thrusts speeding up, she carefully sucked Hung's dick, carefully pushing his gonad between her molars. The smell of his deodorant and sweat filled her nose as she pressed it against his pubic hair. All too soon, the salty bitter taste of his precum told her she had little time to finish the maneuver. The boys may have been twins, but Hung was clearly a lot more sensitive than his brother.

She popped his cock out of her mouth, ignoring his whimper at being denied that last little bit of stimulation he needed. Then she bit down on the gonad still between her teeth, hard. Grinding her teeth back and forth, she moved both of her thumbs to Minh's own left testicle and pressed in, hard, drilling deeper and deeper. She wondered which would explode first, which boy would be left forever lopsided. Or at least, lopsided for a few more minutes.

Squick

Split

Hung and Minh may have had different sexual stamina, but in some ways their balls were completely identical.

Each left testicle exploded simultaneously, Hung's nut bisecting and disintegrating between her teeth as her thumbs finally overcame the resistance of Minh's ropy epididymis and squelched apart. Both boys let out identical shrill wails, and Natalie felt Minh fill her pussy up with warm wetness as Hung covered her face in the same. She managed to shift her fingers over to his remaining nut and press in hard, stopping the flow of cum into her pussy and ruining the excruciating ecstasy of his one chance to impregnate a girl. But she could do nothing to stop Hung from jerking off and enjoying his first orgasm with a girl ever. Or at least, as much as a man can enjoy an orgasm while the remains of half of his manhood are being gnawed into a fine mush. Hung's second spurt hit her right in the eyes, making her squeal and tear up in pain.

>And finally, suddenly, Natalie hit her own limit. She moaned desperately, trying to hold back, but the feeling of two separate testicles exploding from her ministrations was impossibly hot. Her cunt clenched tight around Minh's cock, and she finally let go of his intact testicle to rub furiously at her clit.

Hung collapsed in front of her, still stroking his cock even as he sobbed and cradled his half-filled scrotum with his other hand.

Brotherhood Lost

Minh fell to the rubber mat below, barely making sense of the impossible pain and ecstatic relief overwhelming him.

He wasn't a virgin. He'd fucked. He came inside a real girl, not his hand.

And he'd lost a ball for it. Even if he could deny what every alarm in his body screamed, and the shrieking pain echoing out from the bloated nexus between his legs, his probing fingers confirmed it. His left ball was gone. Forever.

It was too much. Not just the pain, but the....everything. His virginity, gone. The only thing he'd thought about, dreamt of, for 15 years — he had it, and it had cost...that.

It was too much. Far too much. It had felt incredible, just like he'd fantasized, her slick, gripping pussy lips hugging his throbbing cock tightly as he shot his load — —And her cruel thumbs had dug in, turning his left plum into plum sauce, then pressing into his remaining right one so hard she'd squelched the remainder of his orgasm. No man could go through that and stay sane.

"No no no no no no no no NO." He babbled nonsensically. Natalie turned away from his brother's spurting cock, carefully wiping the cum from her eyes and flicking it away. She looked down at him sympathetically, wincing at his lumpy ballbag.

She was crying. She must've felt bad. She...

...had her mouth hanging open and her hands between her legs, rubbing furiously.

He watched in despair as her almond-shaped eyes rolled back into her head and she let out her own shout.

"YES! Oh my gosh, thank you. Thank you thank you thank you. You did amazing. Your ball...I could feel it pulling up, like in my hand, like it was trying to escape, or cum one last time — I mean, I guess you did that — it was amazing. Thank you! This...you...your brother...I couldn't imagine a better first time."

"I really hope you enjoyed it too. I know it's scary, since it's your first and your last at the same time, and we're so public, but I really hope you liked it as much as I did."

"Please...you popped it." Minh sobbed. "Can I at least...at least keep the other one?"

Natalie winced. She opened her mouth to respond, then closed it. Her expression changed subtly.

"Yes. You...you did so good, I'll let you keep your right ball." Relief flooded through him, but her next sentence replaced it with icy panic.

"But I really need to castrate your brother." Minh felt himself go even more lightheaded.

"No, he wants kids. We both want kids."

"Ok, but I need to castrate one of you. And if you help me with him, I'll let you keep your last nut. Otherwise...I'll still try to castrate him, and I'll probably win. No offense, but you guys aren't very good at fighting." She grimaced. "And once he's neutered, I'd take your last ball too."

"I can't...I can't betray him. I can't let him down."

She winced. "Minh...If you don't, I promise I'll take your last nut. I mean it. Think about who you'll be letting down then. Your bro will still be neutered, but your parents, your grandparents, your aunts and uncles...you'll be letting down your whole family tree. Please, Minh, I'm giving you a chance to reproduce after entering the arena. That's really rare. Don't waste it."

Through the pain and trauma, Minh couldn't help but see her logic. He loved his brother as much as any man could... But there was no point in risking both of their nuts. He needed to ensure the Nguyen family line didn't die in the arena.

"Ok. Ok. If you promise to let me keep my other one...I'll help you win. Just...Be quick. Don't torture him. He's my brother."

"Ok. I promise." She kissed him gently on the lips. "Thank you so much. I know it must've hurt when your ball popped — you don't want to feel that again, right? No man would. Hung will understand...someday. I promise."

Hung's face was pressed against the mat, the smell of bleach and rubber almost comforting against the pain between his legs. His ass was in the air, as if pushing it up away from his brain would dampen the excruciating throbbing pain echoing out from his ruptured gonad. He was still pumping his cock, rubbing his foreskin against his cockhead, desperate for the stimulation even as he felt the remnants of his left testicle dribbling weakly out of his dick.

The kicks, the blows, the punches...every second since entering the ring has brought some new testicular nightmare. But he hadn't truly understood pain until she'd bit down all the way. He had been able to feel her chew, and grind, not quite hard enough to break the skin but purposeful and methodical, making sure to take away every piece of his former testicle until she spat him out, not even caring about his orgasm. He could still feel it sliding around inside his scrotum, nauseatingly wet and disconnected from him, shattered nerves still singing with burning.

As his climax finally nearly finished, he staggered to his feet, nearly slipping in the wet pool he'd made on the mat.

He saw the psycho bitch he'd just facefucked whispering in his brother's ear, Minh's cum still sliding out of her pussy.

His first blowjob had felt as good as he'd hoped... Until she'd chewed his testicle into peanut butter. He shuddered at the pain, even as he milked the last few drops of cum from his flaccid dick.

Still...At least he still had one nut. And he'd gotten a blowjob. But god, it wasn't worth the pain of a rupture.

Minh was standing, and shakily made his way over to his brother. Hung glanced between his legs, and winced at the sight of his twin's own missing nut.

"Bro...she popped you too?"

"Yeah." Minh was crying. "Right as I came. She didn't even let me enjoy it, just pinched my cord while it happened." He was sobbing now.

"Dude...don't let her see you like that. You can't give her the satisfaction. We're not castrated yet, we just have to team up and defend ourselves."

"No. She's...she's too strong. I'm sorry dude. I...I told her to make it fast."

"What? What are you talking about?"

"Just...just let her take it. I can still continue the family line. Just let her pop your last ball, and it'll all be over."

Hung's mouth hung open. "No. No no no no. Bro, look at me. We just need to —"

Minh ran behind his own brother and pulled his hands from his crotch. Hung tried to stop him, but he was still weak from the pain in his half-neutered scrotum, and couldn't resist his brother when he locked his elbows behind his back. Limp but held up in his brother's arms, Hung sobbed as he felt his brother hold him tight and spread his legs apart with his feet.

Natalie couldn't believe how easy it had been.

She'd been disappointed with herself, to be sure. She'd wanted to hold off her climax until the end of the bout. Unlike most of the girls in the arena, Natalie didn't have the sex drive to cum more than once in a row. She'd always been a one-and-done girl at home, even while fantasizing about marathon sessions, hitting orgasm after orgasm as she splattered imaginary gonad after gonad into infertile mush.

But here, in the arena, with two men she'd just halfstrated herself...she could feel warmth creep back down into her slick pussy. For the first time in her life, she'd get to cum again. She wishfully dreamed of managing even a third one once she'd neutered both of them, but knew that was beyond her limits.

Natalie almost never lied in real life (which is how she'd started thinking about the world outside the dreamy, fantastical world of the arena). She was a perfect angel. She recycled. She worked late. She called her parents regularly, and didn't cheat, and didn't hurt a fly.

So she hadn't expected to be so convincing with her lie to Minh. Of course she couldn't let him leave with anything functioning between his legs. That was the whole point. Even crushing his brother's last nut wasn't enough for her. She'd held back so much and repressed every violent urge every day of her life. This bout was her one chance to be who she actually was, deep inside: an evil, fucked up, sadistic BITCH.

Natalie shuddered at the word. She didn't like cussing, even in her head.

But that's what she was. What other kind of woman would get off not just on neutering two brothers, but severing their connection for life? She knew Hung would never forgive Minh for helping her. A man might, eventually, maybe learn to forgive a woman who castrated him. Rarely. At least he could know that she didn't truly understand the pain and despair of being sexless for life. But a brother? A fellow man who knew the exact agony of a popped nut, the terror of imagining waking up with a forever empty scrotum?

They'd be enemies for life. She wasn't just taking their manhoods, she was taking their bond. She hadn't even known she'd wanted to do that until the opportunity presented itself. She smiled as Hung struggled fruitlessly against his brother's arms, and his remaining fruit hung down between his legs like the speedbag at her self-defense class.

"Look at that setup! I'm guessing a classic 'eggbeater' move, as the girls have called it. We haven't seen one of these in a while, folks, but it's fallen out of fashion lately! I hope she knows what she's doing with those two. What do you think, Valerie?" The loudspeaker above blared.

She got on her knees below him and looked up lovingly into Hung's terrified face.

"Your brother is right. I'll try to be fast. I promised." He shook his head back and forth, protesting desperately.

"It's great for her, because it's mostly about speed and timing. Our girl's not as strong as some of our reigning champs, but what she lacks in biceps she definitely makes up for in technique. It looks like she'd prepared that gameplan for the entire night, and it has paid off! It might be her first time, but Natalie looks like the kind of girl who always does her homework."

"Please....don't. Please Minh, just let go. We can beat her. We can get out of here." He sobbed. Beneath him, Natalie saw Minh's dick hanging limply behind Hung's butt, his own saggy ballsack dangling identically. Minh had his legs spread apart, his thighs on the inside of his brother's so Hung couldn't close them, keeping Hung's last ball free and vulnerable for her to start destroying.

And Natalie started punching.

The speedbag had been her favorite in class, and she was very good at it. Hung screamed as she battered away at his nut, her fists rolling one over another as she kept her rhythm up, slamming his lone nut and the shattered remains of its brother mercilessly around, slamming into his own taint. Hung's ball took the majority of the cruel momentum of her fists, but Minh got a faint dose as his brother's ball slammed into his. Over and over, she worked his testicle over as hard as she could, feeling the bloated sperm factory swell and soften beneath her knuckles.

Hung could feel his nut breaking apart between his legs. He could feel his brother twitch each time she made his last gonad perversely slap against Minh's; he took a slight pleasure in knowing his brother got a fraction of the pain he had to endure.

He thought of all their years together, bitter at the thought of his betrayal. Bile filled his throat, and he retched as she hit their balls together particularly hard. After all they'd been through together, from the womb through high school and college, their many failed attempts to lose their virginity, their fights and their good times together, he couldn't believe Minh would do this to him. 25 years of brotherly love and frustration all ended here. As far as Hung was concerned, he didn't have a brother anymore.

Well, soon, Minh wouldn't either, he thought bitterly, as her fist drove his nut up into him, cracking wetly and eliciting another icy spear of pain through his last testicle.

He secretly hoped she was lying, that she'd take his brother's last ball anyway...

Wait.

His eyes went wide with realization.

"Minh. Minh! She's lying! She's going to pop you too!"

His brother ignored him. "I'm sorry, I am so so sorry. Just let her finish."

"It's pointless. Bro!"

Minh's eyes flickered. "I...What? She's just...she just needs to neuter you. She promised."

"SHE'S FUCKING LYING!!"

"I...I don't know. I think...I think she's real." Minh's eyes hit the floor.

"Please believe me, bro! We can work together and still win!"

"Hung...I'm really sorry, I just can't take that chance."

Just then, Natalie drove a fierce uppercut between his legs, pinning his right testicle into his pelvis, driving in deeper and deeper until —

His last, final ball gave way, crunching apart beneath her knuckles. She uppercut him again, squishing the separate pieces of gonad apart farther. He let out a wail, cut off by another dry heave at the pain. Over and over, she drove her fist into his crotch, pinning each chunk of nutmeat beneath the full force of her blow. His shriveled cock coughed to life, spurting a weak, watery final load, his final remaining sperm evacuating his balls in a purposeless, desperate escape.

"NO! GOD, fuck NO!"

Overhead, the announcer's voice came through muzzily.

"I don't think begging's going to get you anywhere, boy! She might look nice, but our first timer Natalie packs a hell of an uppercut!"

"Even from up here, there's no doubt about it — he's outta the gene pool! Look at that cumshot, Victoria — that watery blob is NOT a sign of a healthy pair of grapes. It's the nice ones that'll always getcha, dude!"

As he rolled over and his vision darkened, he looked up at the only remaining testicle in his family tree, his brother bent over and holding his crotch in agony, and he desperately hoped he was wrong. As much as he hated Minh, and knew he'd never talk to that betraying asshole again, his mom and dad deserved better. They'd always been excited about grandkids.

Minh shuddered at the sight of his brother's emptied ballsack on the ground, even as he clutched his own in pain. Natalie was still on the floor, masturbating again.

"So...we're done? You promised I could..."

"Y...yeah!" She was barely paying attention to him. Minh thanked God his brother was wrong.

"Just...just wait for me to finish. Please, come over here...I promise. I'll let you go. Just come over here."

He was still terrified of what this shy, sadistic, apologizing naked nerd could do to him. Every instinct in his body drove him to move away, to get his balls as far from her destroying hands and knees and teeth as possible. But he was worried about what she'd do to him.

And with what his brother had gone through... He felt like her continuing torture of his last testicle was, at least, a fraction of the penance he deserved to pay. She'd promised not to pop him. If she was just going to bruise his last nut a little more, he could live with that. After all, Hung had to live with so much worse.

He stepped forward and she hungrily grabbed at his ball with her free hand. Minh squealed at the familiar pain of her thumb digging into his ball, this time driving into the mostly intact front side, wiggling back and forth like a worm trying to dig through packed soil. He coughed, and bent over, and foamed at the mouth. He could feel the exact shape of her nail forming an irreversible crescent-shaped bruise.

Finally, she'd found what she was looking for. Throwing her head back and rubbing herself madly, she wailed into the bright lights above the arena and came, gushing wave after wave of girlcum onto the rubber mat beneath her. She didn't let up any of the pressure from her finger, and Minh felt the agonizing feeling of a cracking ballshell as she used all her strength to drill into his manhood.

But she let up, just in time. Finishing the aftershocks of her climax, Natalie let go of his ball and got to her feet. He fell over, sobbing once again and bizarrely dripping a thin mixture of precum and semen. She'd pressed his ball so hard she'd physically squeezed it out of him, once again without the beautiful relief of an orgasm.

"Ok. How do we...how do we tell them we're done?"

Natalie bit her lip and looked at him guiltily.

"I'm sorry, Minh. There's really only one way for an arena match to end."

Then she grabbed his shoulders and rocketed her knee into his last ball.

Natalie was still shaking from her second orgasm when she felt Minh's nut flatten beneath her knee.

She didn't even think she could manage a third orgasm. She just needed desperately to finish what she started at this point. But when she witnessed the horror hit Minh's face as she dashed his hopes of manhood beneath her knee, she felt herself start to get wet yet again. She could still see that he was hoping it was a feint, that she'd giggle and tell him the deal was still on.

Natalie kneed him extra hard, driving that last little spark of hope from his eyes.

"Please! I did everything you asked! I...I fucked over my own brother! For fuck's sake, what else could I do?!" Minh wailed. Natalie didn't answer, just landed another knee on the left side of his crotch, liquefying some tattered remnants of his first popped nut. He keeled over, retching, and started to collapse to the floor. Staring up from the rubber mat, he made eye contact with the gleeful women in the front row through the thick elastic bands around the arena.

"You still aren't getting it, dude! She's not letting you keep your last nut. She's not letting you keep anything. You literally got to fuck her already, you should be grateful!"

"Trust me, I've seen first timers go absolutely feral when they get their hands on their first pair of willing balls. She is making this fast for you. You're lucky!"

The boy was in too much shock and pain, from his ruptured left ball and badly drilled right ball, to put up much resistance. She practically had to physically hold him up by his armpits as she drilled her knee into his crotch, again and again, doing her best to keep enough leverage to hurt him.

The crowd above had strong opinions on her choice of technique for shattering the Nguyens' final plum.

"LET US SEE HIM BETTER, GIRL! DON'T HIDE THAT LAST POP FROM US!"

"Give her a break, it's her first time. She's doing great! 3 down in 10 minutes flat — she can be forgiven if she can't do the last one perfectly. The boy can't even stay standing!"

"I don't need to see it, I just need to hear him — make him hurt! Don't let him pass out, either — it sucks when they don't feel it! I wanna hear him scream!"

She had to sympathize; she'd always been disappointed when a fighter chose to take a boy's last ball in such an awkward way, his knees clutched around hers so they couldn't get a good look at its final detonation.

Plus, she didn't have any hands free while she had to hold him up. Which was a very high priority for her, right now.

She pushed the near-eunuch to the ground and spread his knees apart. Raising her bare foot high, she stomped down on the final offending gonad and started playing with herself once again. He coughed and scrunched into the fetal position, but she held herself on top of it against his protests, shifting more and more of her slim frame on top of it.

Beneath her foot, she could feel the thing splay out deliciously, and finally she lifted her other foot up entirely, balancing all of her weight on his last ball just like she'd seen other fighters do.

But as technically talented and lightning fast as she was, no amount of training could defeat the laws of physics. The fighters she'd seen pop a nut beneath their weight alone had been much...thicker than her. And well endowed. For the first time in her life, she felt jealous of those girls with backbreakingly huge tits. Hers let her move around fast enough to defend herself despite her scrawny size, but she just didn't have the mass required to splatter a nut beneath her weight alone.

So, she started to bounce.

Up and down, slowly at first, not hard enough to even lift off his ball entirely, she pushed herself up and down gently, compressing the nut with incredible force. It passed the plateau of flatness it'd been stuck at and spread further out, its edges going from smooth to rough as the outer shell gave way.

"Do you feel that? It's dying, Minh." She leaned over and whispered into his ear. "I'm killing your last baby maker. You'll lose your testosterone, you understand? Those big muscles, that...that long hard cock? They're going to go away, forever. Because of me. You might get a high pitched voice, or grow boobs, or...you might get lucky. You might still look like a man. But you'll never be one again." He sobbed beneath her.

"At least you got that one last chance, right? You got to lose your virginity! That's what you came here for, right? I...I was really nice to you, honestly! Most girls don't do anything like that. Most girls would just want to end your sex life before it began at all. I'm nicer than them, at least, aren't I?"

He looked up at her with bloodshot eyes. She had taken his brother and his left nut from him, and now she was taking his last one. But she still wanted to break him more.

"Tell me. Tell me I'm nicer than them. Tell me I'm a good girl. I...I try so hard to be, all the time."

She looked into his eyes as she bounced harder and harder on top of his testicle.

"Tell me, please. Thank me for being so nice."

Through gritted teeth and foamy lips, the words barely made it out of him. But he tried his best.

"Thank...ooo, Natalie. Thank you. You're...nice. You felt so nice." He was sobbing. "I wish...I wish I could've felt that without the pain."

"I know, Minh. I know. But at least you got to feel it, right?" He sobbed, and nodded. "I've really only done it with one guy before, you know. He told me I was tighter than any girl he'd ever been with. And we only did it a few times before he...couldn't do it anymore. So I'm almost a virgin myself."

His eyes went wide at the revelation. "I...I assumed you'd done this a lot."

"It's my first round too, Minh. I just thought...well, I thought you were cute." She smiled sweetly at him.

"Say goodbye to your nut, now."

She bounced so hard she lifted inches off his scrotum.

And came down hard, spattering his gonad's innards out of the cracks that had formed in its shell. Natalie fell down and orgasmed without shame, a miraculous third as she ground his balls away beneath her, sliding back and forth, methodically looking for any intact remnants, dragging out her pleasure as long as she could—— until somehow, her pleasure started to build, more rapidly than she'd ever felt. Her petering aftershocks suddenly built back up, incredibly fast, and Natalie rubbed away and suddenly —

— crested again, and Natalie cried out in real surprise as she reached a miraculous fourth climax, overlapping with the end of her third one in a cascade of ecstasy. She couldn't believe it; she'd never even dreamed of this much pleasure at once, but the intensity and excitement and pure heartbreak of the boys beneath her triggered something deep inside her she didn't know she had.

Dropping to the ground, her legs giving out from the spasms, she rolled onto her back and arched her pussy up, rubbing her clit as she freely sobbed in ecstasy. Dimly through her tears, she saw the women drag the two unconscious eunuchs out as the crowd mocked the new eunuchs.

"Hope you boys didn't want babies!"

"Hope you didn't want anything to do with being a man! Those nuts are toast, bros! Get used to being a little lighter between the legs."

"They're not really brothers anymore, right? What's the right word for twin eunuchs?"

Natalie gushed everywhere, girlcum mixing with Minh's last semen dripping from her — or not quite last, perhaps, as his low-hanging cock left a wispy snailtrail of semen behind him as he was dragged out by his armpits.

She revelled in what she'd done: four ruptured testicles, and more importantly, four beautiful, relaxing, relieving, unrepressed, gushing orgasms, one for each gonad she'd ruined. The arena had really provided her the push she needed to get past her own repressions. She likely never would've indulged in them, after David, but seeing other girls go through the same thing was so freeing. She burned the memory of the match into her brain, knowing it would fuel her squirming orgasms for years to come.

Masturbating in the stands was one thing, but the reality of being watched by so many people as she indulged in her darkest fantasies had terrified her for years, even as she fantasized about it. She was so proud of herself for leaving her comfort zone and enjoying herself. She arched herself up even higher, spreading her legs for the audience to see, unbothered and truly free for the first time in her life.

High above, in one particular pair of seats, Natalie could just barely see Vanessa and Brian. Vanessa was squeezing his plums, although not fatally hard, watching Natalie intently and smiling. Brian was pumping away between his legs. As she watched, shaking from the aftershocks of her last orgasm, he gasped and finally bucked off his seat, spurting semen all over his belly and the floor beneath. Several long cumshots even festooned the hair of the women in the tier below him, much to their chagrin. Natalie still hoped she could get him in the ring someday.

Especially now that she had real experience. She had...a lot of ideas about how she'd fight him.

As her orgasm petered off and her aftershocks wore down, she finally, shakily got to her feet. The crowd had cheered her on the whole way, and was now ready for the next unfortunate man to come out and have his life changed forever. She staggered out of the arena as the ref announced the next pair of fighters.

Until next time

You made it to the end. Hopefully your gonads are more functional than the ones you just read about.

I love hearing from readers. Whether you've got feedback, a request, an oddly specific scenario you've been dying to see written, a unformatted wall of text meticulously describing each and every ballbusting fantasy you've ever masturbated to, or just want to correct all of my typos, drop me a line.
