

The Ballbusting Arena 1: Battle Royale

by Preun BB

Britt suppressed a giggle as their four opponents walked into the ring, cocks protruding ridiculously in front of them. It wasn't surprising the poor boys couldn't control themselves; few sexually experienced men could keep themselves soft in front of four naked women, and Britt knew that their "recruiter" always tried to bring in male teams that were virgins.

Virgins were desperate enough to sign the waiver. They would only see the big bold words at the beginning: "Victory in the 'Battle Royale' guarantees each participant whatever form of sexual intercourse they demand from the losing team." They rarely read the fine print at the end.

Britt sometimes felt a little bad about what happened to them on the mat. Was it really fair that these guys lost their balls just because they didn't read everything they signed? The contract was ironclad, as many eunuchs had discovered very publicly in court: All participants waived away their rights to sue for "physical injuries received during the "Battle Royale", including but not limited to: testicular torsion, testicular rupture, torn spermatic cords, penile fracture, or partial or total castration." Brutal language for a brutal fight club.

Still...Britt couldn't blame everything they went through on herself. And they did sign those contracts, so it wasn't totally her fault they ended up castrated. After all, wasn't she risking her body as well? She didn't exactly want to have sex with these random men if she lost the fight. Plus, not every boy ended up nutless. And besides...

Britt sighed. She knew she could rationalize as much as she wanted, but deep down she knew the true reason she'd been training for this for months: she got off on it just as much as the rest of the girls. Britt wasn't as open about her preferences as the others, but she could never resist jilling herself off after watching an especially entertaining match. She just had the modesty to wait until she got out of the locker room.

At the end of the day, the Battle Royale was simply the only way she'd ever get a chance to pop balls.

"Ooh, I call the big ones on the far right!" Emma piped up, and Britt smiled. Emma always called the biggest set of nuts, as if she was the only woman of the four that wanted to be responsible for the most pain and damage. She was bouncing in place impatiently, pretending she didn't notice how riveting the other team found her display of her assets. God, boys were easily distracted. If they knew how sadistically twisted the buxom blonde was, they might be less interested in her body.

"Emma, we don't do 'dibs' here. Let's just work together in this; You know what happens if we lose." Vivian was right, the consequences for losing were too great to spend time quibbling over who gets to crush the largest nuts. Britt did not want to end the night bent over obscenely, enduring each awkward thrust and moan. Even though they wouldn't last long, the idea of those boys streaking her body with virgin cum was enough to make her wrinkle her nose in disgust.

"Enough talk. Just fight. Stretch out first, don't want to strain muscle during battle." Sofia's annoyance was clear even through her thick Russian accent. She was lunging and stretching on the far end. She was also displaying her naked muscular body to their opponents and the audience, but Britt knew she didn't care about their ogling eyes. The former olympian wasn't the friendliest teammate, but she was the best fighter in the club. Despite her cold demeanor on the mat, Britt knew Sofia enjoyed the event as much as anyone on the team. Her frequent noisy orgasms in the shower post-match made that obvious.

The bell rang, and the all-female crowd cheered as the eight nude combatants squared off. Britt's first opponent was trembling, his cock jutting straight out, his eyes glued to her red-haired pussy. She smiled sweetly at him, setting her legs the slightest bit apart so he could get a better view of her vulva. It was a move she'd practiced dozens of times in the mirror. "If you want it, you're going to have to beat me."

He smiled back at her nervously. "I...I don't want to hurt you. I'll be gentle, both during the fight, and...and after, when we're having sex. You're...you're just so pretty."

She was lucky. This boy had no idea what he was in for.

Britt tried to swallow her nerves as she lowered her guard and approached him. "Awww, you're sweet. What's your name, cutie?" Do I sound sincere? I hope I sound sincere.

The boy stared, clearly confused. Of all the things he'd expected to happen on the mat at the underground fight club, successful flirting was not one of them. And having nothing to hide his rock-hard dripping erection didn't make things easier. He dropped his guard and rubbed the back of his neck awkwardly "Uh, I'm...Dan. What's yours?"

Dan had never been this close to a naked woman before. Hell, he'd never even been in the same room as one. He knew he had to beat her in the fight if he wanted a chance at that fiery-haired vagina, but he couldn't imagine hurting her. Her innocent smile, sparkling green eyes, freckled pale flesh, and perky but modest breasts were too perfect. Despite the circumstances, he felt rude staring at her private parts, but he couldn't take his eyes off those tantalizing little cupcake tits or that tight slit between her legs, two things he'd never seen in real life.

She got even closer to him, putting her arms on his shoulders. Her stiff nipples were almost touching him. She pulled her leg back for some reason...

"I'm Britt. Nice to meet you, Dan."

Splat!

The worst pain Dan had felt in his short life suddenly gripped him. Faster than he could blink, she had buried her knee in his crotch. The blow sent his cock flopping, splattering tiny flecks of precum onto her and the mat.

Just like the practice dummy, girl. You can do this.

Britt was in excellent shape, but unlike her companions, this was her very first time on the mat.

She had never even kneed a boy in the balls before. But she'd watched dozens of matches, cheering from the seats as her friends liquified testicle after testicle.

Those practice dummies couldn't react though. Dan's face was twisted in confusion and betrayal and wonderful male agony. Agony she had caused with a single knee to the balls. The agony those hundreds of hours of practice couldn't ever cause. Those fuzzy little fruits she'd smashed into him weren't silicone, but pure functional maleness. She shivered in delight. The training room had nothing on this.

"You...you can't kick me in the nuts. That's unfair!" Their chemistry was gone, their flirtation dried up with that one hit in the balls. He swung wide at her, and she ducked, bear hugged his abdomen, and brought her knee up as hard as she could between his legs again.. The crowd cheered her on.

Splat!

"I'm really sorry, Dan." Her tone was sincere but her actions gave a very different impression. She shot up in front of him, pressed close to his body and placed her hands on his shoulders. His still-hard cock bent awkwardly as she maneuvered it out of the way. She was inside his range, and his eyes opened wide in anger and fear as she brought her knee back again.

Splat!

Britt stomped down and quickly brought her knee up again, this time stabilizing the poor virgin so she could get a better hit. He tried to swing at her, but she was too close for him to get a solid hit on, and his strength was leaving him as she systematically decreased his sperm count.

Splat! Splat! Splat!

She'd established her rhythm now, each knee flying up a fraction of a second after the other, each hit crunching his balls into his pelvis perfectly. The crowd was loving it; girls didn't usually try this sort of close range kneeing technique on the mat, and especially not in their debut fight. It was hard to get close enough to a boy, but Britt had gambled that the virgin was naive enough to be taken in by even the most heavy-handed fake flirting. And nobody had ever lost money betting against the intelligence of a horny male.

Thwack!

His right hook miraculously connected with her side, more force behind it than she'd expected. He followed it up with a jab to the stomach, and Britt doubled over with pain. She was face to face with the thing between his legs, and she got a closer look at what her knees had done to him. Both balls were mottled with bruises, and the left one looked slightly out of round. Maybe she was lucky enough to already prevented this particular boy from raping her.

Then a meaty leg appeared between Dan's spread legs, and a more experienced knee crashed into his groin. Its owner grunted with effort.

Crnch-squick

It happened so fast, but Britt tried to burn the image into her brain. In the stands, she could never see exactly what happened when a boy's nut gave out; up close, she got to see all the exquisite details. Sofia's knee had traveled straight up, perfectly isolating a single testicle instead of spreading her damage out over both. The orb had held together for a fraction of a second before bursting like a balloon, spewing its innards into its loosely containing scrotum. His intact nut sagging sadly to the side of her knee, as if it could tell it had just narrowly missed destruction but still wasn't safe.

It was the most incredible thing Britt had ever seen, or heard. She flushed as she felt herself grow damp. But anger and disappointment welled up in her as well.

"That...that was going to be my first nut. I had him totally under control, Sofia."

Sofia rolled her eyes. "Tch, dah. Surely, totally under control. You're welcome."

Britt sighed, annoyed but still shaking from the intense experience of watching Sofia destroy his testicle. "Don't you have your own boy to take care of?"

"Already did." She jerked her thumb over to a mewling blonde boy bent over in the corner. Britt noticed the trail of wetness going from his crotch over to her Russian teammate, and saw the slick mush covering her left hand.

"You...you tore his balls off?!"

"Just one ball, and I popped it. You Americans always have such...how you say? Theatrics. Winning is simple. Grab-"

Sofia cupped her nutmush-covered hand.

She made it into a fist.

"Twist, and pull." She twisted her wrist and jerked it away, imitating a soft squelching sound.

"But...but the crowd! You've got to put on a bit of a show, don't you? I don't even think they saw you pop it!"

The brown-haired Russian rolled her eyes again. "Every time, 'Put on a show. Play for crowd, they want to see it.'"

She walked over to the half-neutered boy, and snaked her hand between his legs, taking no notice of his screaming and babbling. Britt saw her bicep clench, and his gibbering became a high-pitched keening. Still unfazed, Sofia lifted the boy above her head, holding him solely by his fleshy organ. His entire weight stretched his ballcords obscenely, but Sofia kept her grip. She presented her prize to the crowd, and they all watched the orb breathlessly. Sofia pushed her finger in, and-

Squelch

His last piece of manhood turned to goo, and he screamed in agony. The first castration of the night was a messy one; with his scrotum held above him, gravity helped the boy empty the remains of his manhood all over himself. He managed to remain conscious through the pain and the bloodrush to his head. Sofia ground his sack up and bounced him up and down a few times, joggling the last drops of semen out of him. He shuddered as he finished his last orgasm all over his chest, face, and the rubber mat below.

"Is good show now, da?" Sofia purred sarcastically as she dropped the eunuch to the floor. She didn't need to ask Britt; the crowd's cheers and moans were deafening. Britt closed her gaping mouth and wiped the drool off her face. "Let's...let's go help the others."

Sofia frowned. "What about him?" She gestured over to Dan, who was bent over on his hands and knees. He was sticking his ass high in the air, and his half-filled scrotum peaked out between his legs lewdly, almost daring them to pop his last nut.

The sight was grotesque, and Britt couldn't help feeling sorry for the poor half-man. She shook her head. "Let him keep that one. Like you said, he was going to beat me. He deserves to get out of here with one of his nuts." He'll likely be the only one that does.

Sofia rolled her eyes again. "Tch. Fine. We help other two now."

They turned to where the other two girls were grappling with their combatants. Vivian had her boy in a headlock, and was raining punch after punch onto his ballsack. The hits didn't have the power of Sofia's, but the frequency of them was enough to debilitate her victim with pain. Tiny black splotches were breaking out, growing with each fleshy splat.

Emma wasn't having the same luck. She'd gone after the fattest balls, and they brought the toughest man with him. His hormones had clearly done him favors; his brown circumcised cock was obscenely long, and he was muscular and fit in a stark contrast to the reedy thinness of the other virgins. Emma tried to grab for his balls, but he shoved her away, his face frantic as he tried to keep his manhood safe.

Roger's eyes darted between his assailants and their victims, Dan and Venn crumpled up like tissues, with only one functioning ball between them.

"You...you broke their balls! Dan and Venn, their..."

"She sure did." The blonde girl giggled, like it was the funniest thing in the world. Despite himself, he couldn't help but notice the delicious jiggle of her breasts.

He failed to articulate his thoughts. All rational thought fled him; he could only think of one thing: protecting his ability to procreate. That same instinct had guided his ancestors through thousands of years of reproduction. The need to pass his seed on was stronger than his need to eat, to breathe, to live. If he let this big-titted psycho end his genetic line, he'd be a failure to all those generations.. Just a dead leaf on his sprawling family tree.

He crouched over defensively, doing his best to keep his testicles inaccessible to her kicks and jabs, occasionally scoring a glancing blow of his own, much to the booing of the audience. It didn't seem like they were big fans of the males winning. He wondered if they ever had.

His turtling strategy was working, though. He was wearing her down. His tight defensive positioning didn't leave him much power, but he was invulnerable. His balls still swung pendulously below him, but she couldn't get a hit on them no matter how ferociously she tried. She was terrifying, but her vicious flurries left her pendulous boobs flopping around, and her efforts left her panting and sweating. He tried not to think about what he would do with those tits if he miraculously won this fight. For now, he just needed to survive.

Emma missed another swing and landed off kilter. This was his chance, she was wide open! Roger dove in for a finishing blow. But as he lunged forward, a piece of him stayed behind. The sudden tug on his fragile nutcords sent tendrils of agony up his stomach, and his knees started to buckle. Someone was holding him back, literally. The hand between his legs wrench his balls hard, and he gasped with pain.

"Sofia! Come on, you've already popped three." The cruel muscular hand let go reluctantly, and he felt two women on either side grab him by the shoulders. He tried to break free, but Sofia tweaked his balls painfully until he stopped resisting.

"Just keep your legs spread for us. Emma won't take long on you." The raven-haired asian girl whispered in his left ear, her voice calm but her cruel words bringing him to tears. "Just think of all those women watching you, and how much joy you're going to bring them when your nuts pop. You've never brought pleasure to a woman before, have you? Never gotten to shoot inside of anything other than your hand?" Her voice was wavering now, and he could almost feel her blushing. He tried to stay stoic, but her reminder of his virginity brought another sob. He looked around desperately for his last uninjured teammate, but Paul was laying spread-eagle on the ground, thoroughly ballbusted.

"You don't have to be so mean to him, Vivian. It's not his fault he has balls." The skinny ginger girl was holding his right side up. He could feel her stiff pink nipples pressed into his arms.

She leaned in close to his ear. "Don't worry. I know it seems like a big deal right now, but LOTS of guys have productive lives after their castration!" She seemed to be sincere in her efforts to cheer him up, as unhelpful as they were. Her tone was truly sympathetic, and even a little pitying, but her grip was firm.

"Right now, your thoughts are all dominated by sex, and porn, and jerking off. And...Well, I know it's probably pretty fun, but it never really gets you anywhere, does it? Once you're nutless, you're going to have SO much more free time! And there's a really nice adoption agency downtown, so you can still raise kids! Even if you can't produce them."

Roger shivered in fear as Emma smiled wide, pulled her foot back, and-

Splat!

His first solid kick in the groin shook him with pain.

Splat! Splat! Splat!

"Please...Please don't-" Emma didn't even seem to hear him, her foot flying up harder and harder in between his legs, each squishing the contents of his scrotum flatter, sending agonizing jolt after jolt of nauseating pain through him, until-

Splat-CRUNCH

Something gave way inside one of his testicles. The girls released him, and he fell to the floor crying. He bent in a futile attempt to cover his genitals, which were already swelling painfully full. He lost his balance and pitched forward, yet another boy on his hands and knees with his scrotum vulnerable.

"Ooooh, let me do this one!" Emma shooed the two girls away, and Britt and Sofia backed up as the blonde knelt down behind Roger. She was in the same position as him, on all fours, her head right near his crotch. Britt didn't know what Emma had in mind, but she knew she was pulling some wildcard stunt. Every fight needed something truly surprising, and Emma was known for her surprises.

Emma reached forward and pulled his balls into her mouth, moaning as she positioned them between her molars. The crowd gasped at her audacity; few girls managed to get wholly intact boys in a position as vulnerable as this. She looked like a busty chipmunk, each cheek full of bulging nutflesh. She squeezed her jaws together just a bit, and the boy let out a bloodcurdling scream as his balls bulged out dangerously between her teeth. Emma's eyes rolled back in pleasure, and her hands finally flew to her dripping pussy..

"All...most there!" Emma tried to cry out, but his testicles muted her words. They couldn't mute her shrill moans though, as she rubbed herself closer and closer to climax, and brought her jaws closer and closer together until-

Squick-PLOMPH

Her cheeks collapsed as Emma bit all the way through her mouthful. She bucked back hard in pleasure, straining his sack of mush through her teeth and shredding any solid bits. Roger's eyes rolled back into his head and he fainted as he passed from manhood to eunuchdom without a final orgasm.

Emma was too engrossed in her own orgasm to notice the lack of his. She finished climaxing sprawled on the floor, chewing and dragging his mushy scrotum far away from his body, her hands working frantically between her legs in sync with dozens of the audience members. Finally, she finished cumming, spit his lipstick-ringed sack out, and stood up, trembling and sweaty from her exertion but still smiling.

"So, how many do we have left?" None of the girls bothered commenting on Emma's display. Combatants cumming during a battle royale were hardly rare, and Emma was notoriously immodest.

"One boy who's still got both balls now. I've got him all ready for us." Vivian grinned evilly. "Wanna do the pole?"

"Ooooh! The pole! Oh man, we haven't done that in forever!" Emma gleefully kneeled down next to the spread boy's left arm, and gestured Sofia into place on his right. Britt sighed and picked up the left ankle as Vivian got the other. The pole was a lot of fun for the audience, but she'd be denied her chance at feeling the pop. Maybe next time, she told herself glumly. She oriented herself with the other three girls, spreading his legs wide and aligning his crotch with the nearest thick iron support beam.

The audience cheered again as they saw what was coming, and Paul stirred awake. He tried to move, but each girl was holding him up, several inches off the ground, and starting to jog forward. His balls felt like they had been through a blender. He squeezed tears of pain out as he tried to focus. A great brown something was approaching, right between his legs, something cold and hard and unforgiving-

Crunch

The girls simultaneously heaved him forward, balls first into the support beam. The combination of their upper body strength and his considerable momentum threw him far too hard against the steel, the metal pillar smashing his balls flat against his thighs and pelvic bone. His nuts gave out a sound like a bunch of celery being snapped in half, and Paul felt something unnameable tear apart inside them. His balls throbbed, uselessly telling him how close to dysfunction they were. He choked his screams of pain down, and just barely managed to keep from losing his lunch. Paul silently willed his four she-demons to finish what they had started and end his agony.

They swung him back again and gave another great heave forward, and the pillar shot between his legs again.

He knew they wanted to hear him scream, so he had tried his best to stay quiet through his torment. But his balls were in such a fragile state already, the second hit was far more than enough to liquify them completely, and no boy could stay silent through that wet hamburger-on-stone splat. Paul screamed as they dropped him to the floor, twitching uselessly as his cock sent stream after stream of thick semen and clumpy mush onto the metal pole, adding another reddish stain to the hundreds that already adorned it.

The girls regrouped. Vivian and Sofia were blushing and impatient, both eager to head back to the showers to enjoy the memories of today's fight. Emma was smiling and satisfied, still enjoying the afterglow of her orgasm. But Britt was clearly disappointed.

"What's wrong, Britt?", asked Emma.

"I didn't get to pop any nuts today! I know, we had the pole, and I got some busting in early with my guy, but..." She glared at Sofia. "She crushed one of his balls before I even got a chance!"

Sofia scoffed. "You had good chance already to crush it. You took too long."

Vivian frowned. "That sucks, Britt, but you know that sort of thing happens on the mat. We don't do 'dibs' here, and I'm sure Sofia was just trying to help you out. Girls usually don't get to do a full castration their first time up. But...you said she only popped one?"

Britt nodded.

"So...he's got one left, right?"

She stared sheepishly at the ground. "I...I was going to let him keep the last one. It only seemed fair."

Sofia let out a snort, and Emma giggled. Vivian smiled at her. "Honey, I know you're trying to be nice, but...why? Just take it. He signed the contract. You can do what you want to him."

She felt like a naive little kid, but the thought of castrating the boy turned her stomach. It was sexually fascinating, but did she really want to go through with a complete castration? The other girls had done it so easily, and she certainly was going to masturbate endlessly to what went on tonight, but...she wasn't truly responsible for any of those neuterings, so she didn't feel guilty about them. Maybe the pole, but only partially. And Dan was such a sweet guy. Did he really deserve to lose both of his gonads?

She looked over to where the one-nut had collapsed, and frowned. The crumpled up figure wasn't there anymore. Where had he...

Something hit the back of her knee hard. Britt fell as Dan's knee struck her again. Dan had gotten up sometime during the testicular carnage. He snarled in her ear as he readied another attack. "You...you fucking bitch, you broke their balls! I'm going to-"

Guess he wasn't so sweet after all. Dan barely could finish his threat before all three girls pounced on him, dropping him to the floor. Sofia sat on his face, her muscular thighs squeezing his face tightly. Vivian held his left two limbs, and Emma held his right. They both smiled back at her as the boy's tongue melted Sofia's usual iciness away. Sofia grunted and thrust into his face, squeezing his face tight until he could barely breathe, using her tight muscular pussy to mute his shrieks.

"Now's your chance." Vivian and Emma smiled at her encouragingly. Sofia said nothing, too busy moaning at the vibrations from his screams. "Take that last one. Finish our fight tonight, and pop that little nut. You deserve it." A louder shriek came out from him, and Sofia's eyes rolled back in pleasure.

They were right. He owed that ball to her. She deserved this, after the cheap attack this asshole had got on her. He could have left the ring with his manhood damaged but technically fertile, but his fragile male ego had made him attack her one last time. Neutering him would be a kindness, really. Britt wound her foot back, taking careful aim at the sole intact testicle in the whole arena. "Say goodbye to your ball, Dan." She whispered, too soft for anyone but the fighters to hear. His shrieking jumped a few more decibels, and her foot flew forward, just as she'd practiced dozens of times.

The little thing pulped beneath her foot, and the crowd went wild. It was small, but oh so important to both her and him. For him, she'd just changed him forever, cut one more horny guy out of the collective gene pool, giving him back hundreds of hours of free time he would've spent jerking off.

For her, it was her first popped ball. Not her last one she'd break, nor the largest or the smallest, but her first. She treasured that memory for the rest of her fighting career, that feeling of a hard little lump turning to mush under her toe, Sofia drowning him in her very public orgasm, his eyes rolling into the back of his head as she ended his sex life.

Until next time

You made it to the end. Hopefully your gonads are more functional than the ones you just read about.
