

Commitment

by Preun BB

"I'm finally ready. Tonight."

Four words was all it took. She could hardly concentrate for the rest of the day. Work was a blur. All these could think about was those four little words, and what they meant.

Five o'clock came, and she almost ran into her boss rushing to get to her car. Normally she drove carefully, but today the speed limit was only a suggestion. She had to get home to him while he was still willing. It wouldn't be the first time a boy tried to back out of his commitment to her.

But she knew he wouldn't. They'd talked about it too much. He knew how serious this was for her, and he knew what it meant.

She couldn't wait to add him to her collection.

She fumbled the knob to her front door, her hands shaking with anticipation. Would he be in the bedroom waiting for her? Or had he already fled, too scared to do what he promised, like so many past boyfriends?

No. He was committed. Spread out in the living room, his legs tied apart, her prize dangling down so perfectly between his thighs. An assortment of tools lay neatly arranged on the coffee table: a burdizzo, an elastrator, a guillotine, scissors, knives, hammers and nails. A jar and some formaldehyde. A bronzing kit and some unadorned earrings, the places for stone conspicuously empty. So many toys.

"I...I didn't know what you wanted, so I got you everything. You've talked about so many different ways to do it. I hope I didn't miss anything." He swallowed hard. "I know I should've talked it over with you first, but I was worried if I started planning I'd get scared, and-"

"You did great, honey," she purred. "This is everything I've ever wanted."

"Good." he smiled weakly, and a tear dripped down his cheek. "I...I want to give you them. I always have, I realized."

"I can tell. Thank you. It's going to hurt, but I'm going to do this safely." She set aside the guillotine, hammer and all but the smallest and sharpest of the knives. Those toys were fun in fantasies, but too dangerous for real life. Only the elastrator and burdizzo were left, along with the tiny paring knife she used for peeling apples, a couple inches long and whetted razor-sharp.

"If I do it right, you should just feel a little pinch."

He let out a deep shuddering sigh. "Good. I...I was scared of the pain, but I knew...I knew you needed them from me, so..."

"I do."

"... And I...I need to give you them."

"Of course you do."

"It took me so long to build up the nerve, I'm sorry-"

"Quiet." She put a finger to his lips. "Don't apologize. This is perfect. You're beautiful."

He blushed hard, and she saw the cock she'd lavished so much love upon give an inviting twitch. He wasn't hung like a porn star, but her boy had a nice cock, thick and uncut with a big blue vein running across the top. She would miss it.

"You're going to be mine, forever."

"I already am." He swallowed again. "Ma'am."

She picked up the elastrator and got one of the green rubber rings out of the bag next. It was as thick as a Cheerio, but when she placed it on the five little pins and pushed the handles together it stretch as thin as twine, its hole going from a pinprick to a gap wide enough to encircle his fruits.

"Wow, that's really tight."

"Of course. It's got to cut blood flow off entirely, dear."

"R...right." She could tell he was scared. Good. Any man in his position would be. It almost wouldn't be any fun if he wasn't a little scared. Not that she revelled in his terror, but...

Ok. Maybe she reveled a bit.

"So...there won't be any blood at all?"

"Very little, if I do things right. The first few times I did it to a boy, I messed up, and things got pretty scary for both of us. You know those blood smears all over the dungeon walls? But I've had enough practice. I know what I'm doing now."

She'd shown him her collection a few months ago, the night she revealed what she wanted from him. He had been so scared they didn't talk for two weeks, but she'd been patient. She knew he'd come begging for her eventually.

They always did. Even when she told him the promise she'd need to stay in a relationship with them. He could put it off for up to a year, but after that she was taking them by force.

He'd lasted six months.

His balls drew up close to him when the cold metal made contact, as if inching away from her would save their life. She tugged them down and stuffed them through the tight rubber ring, then slid it off each of the elastrator's pegs, one at a time. It came off with a snap, and he gasped.

"Oh my god, wow. That...that's so tight...WOW." He winced.

"It'll only hurt for a little bit. Blood flow should die off in a minute, and then they'll be numb. Trust me, you're going to want that for the next part." She unlocked the burdizzo, pulling the handles apart. His eyes grew wide.

After a few minutes, she gave his ballsack a meaty flick.

"Feel that?"

"Feel what?"

She grinned. "You're ready." She slipped her lover's balls between the jaws of the tool.

"Wait, wait! Already? Oh my god, it's really happening. Oh god, oh god. I...my parents want grandkids, I want...oh fuck. FUCK!" He was starting to hyperventilate.

There was the last minute panic. It always came. She waited for him to calm down as he ranted and raved.

"Hey. Hey!" A noisy slap to his jewels, and he twitched. The bonds still held him fast.

"You're not backing out, are you?"

He blinked, then slumped back in his bonds defeated.

"No. No, of course not. Just...just take them. Please."

Her slight pressure on the handles made the jaws draw closer.

"Take what? What am I taking from you, lover boy?"

He blinked away tears, looking down at her.

"My...my balls. You're taking my balls away from me."

"Forever. No going back once I do this. You understand that? Do you accept that?"

"Yes, of course. Mistress, I...I want to give you whatever you want. Mistress, I love--"

She put all her weight down, closing the handles in an instant. A tiny crunch emanated from beneath its jaws and his confession ended in a wheeze.

It was done, at least the hard part. He looked down at her in horror and disbelief, as if he still hadn't expected this.

Then the tears started. They always did. A welcome warmth suffused her as she heard the first sobs.

She wasn't a sadist. She didn't like hurting her boys. She just wanted to alter them a little bit, help them be the best person they could be. And take a little souvenir of her own in the bargain. Still, it was so satisfying when they first realized what they'd lost. Smiling to herself, she reached for the paring knife.

He was still gasping and babbling wordlessly when she made the incisions. Two tiny slits, one for each half of his manhood. His balls popped out, white as abalone and shiny slick. The burdizzo had done its job well, their cords almost perfectly crushed. The left was completely detached, and it almost rolled away before she could catch it. Rightie only needed a tiny snip to be separated from its owner.

The elastrator was good too. Some of the cheaper ones didn't do their job right, but he clearly had done his research. Barely a drop of blood squeezed out of the cuts.

"Oh...Oh. Oh my god. Ohhhhhh my god oh god oh god," He still babbled, but he was starting to catch his breath, his eyes glued to the ceiling. As if not looking at them would mean it hadn't happened. She rolled his balls around in her hand, and held them up in front of him.

"Hey. Boy. Eyes down here. I want you to see." She raised her new prizes up to his eye level. He slowly looked down at them, then down between his legs, then back at the orbs.

"It's...those are...those are them. You did it." He said dumbly.

Boys always had a hard time thinking straight after it was done.

"Yes. It's over."

"It's over." He looked back down at his emptied sack. "You...you really did it. I thought...I thought you might let me keep them, like it was a fantasy and-"

"You knew it wasn't."

He sighed deeply, tears trickling down his cheeks. "I did. I knew. Of course I knew. Your collection...God. Goddamnit." He blinked wetly. "Th...thank you."

"No, boy, thank you." She kissed him on the cheek, and his eyes rolled upwards, and he went limp. She sighed. Boys could be so dramatic after getting their balls cut off.

Well, the ambulance would be here soon. No need to worry.

She dropped each of the fleshy lozenges into one of the little glass jars he'd laid out, filled with preserving liquid. Normally she'd just keep them in the jar forever, but he'd had some nice ideas. The unset jewelry he'd bought was such an exquisite style.

"Can I buy you a drink?"

The woman was gorgeous. Even just sitting there, she looked liked a goddess. Something about her pose just screamed confidence and poise, like she owned the place but didn't even care. But when she turned to him and smiled, a shiver ran up his spine. He felt like a mouse looking at a cat. There was something terrifying about her.

God she was hot though. That was all it was. Hot women always intimidated him. And she was still smiling. Maybe he had a shot with her, even though she was way out of his league. After all, she was just a woman, not a predator.

"Of course you can. What's your name, honey?"

"I'm George. Your earrings are beautiful."

They weren't, but he could tell they were expensive. The bronze orbs in the center were oddly shaped, almost asymmetrical, and had an lot of detailed wriggling paths etched into their surface, like a series of rivers on a map, or veins. If he didn't know better, he might've thought the creator had tried to make them look like a pair of...

Hm. Maybe it was symbolic.

"Thank you, George."

"Almost as beautiful as you are."

"My boyfriend gave them to me." His stomach dropped. He should've known a woman that gorgeous was taken.

"Er, ex-boyfriend. Or maybe my ex-boy friend..." She giggled softly.

He didn't understand why she repeated herself, or what her joke was. Maybe she was already drunk. That'd make conversation easy, at least. He flagged the bartender down and started chatting her up. She was intimidating, but flirtatious in a coy and inscrutable way, and sharp as a tack even though she was clearly a few drinks in. He knew he wouldn't be able to keep up with her in a relationship, but maybe he could get her in bed for one night.

After all, he wasn't looking for a permanent commitment.

Until next time

You made it to the end. Hopefully your gonads are more functional than the ones you just read about.

I love hearing from readers. Whether you've got feedback, a request, an oddly specific scenario you've been dying to see written, a unformatted wall of text meticulously describing each and every ballbusting fantasy you've ever masturbated to, or just want to correct all of my typos, drop me a line.
